CASUALTIES AND CAPTURES

WASHINGTON, Friday, Sept. 18.

The editor of the Star, who left Culpepper yesterday, says, in his paper of to-day:

"On Wednesday night the Union line extended from Stevensburgh through Culpepper Court-house to the Stone Mountain House, four miles north of the Court-house. Yesterday morning the line was changed, the army having advanced to a close proximity to the Rapidan River, where the rebel corps of A. P. HILL and EWELL are believed to be now strongly fortified.

The Army of the Potomac never was in as fine a condition as it is at this moment—so healthy, so cleanly clad, so well supplied, and with so much élan. It is worth to-day in a hard fight twice as much as it ever was before the battle of Gettysburgh."

A letter from Darnestown, Md., on the Upper Potomac, dated to-day, says: Early yesterday morning from 200 to 400 rebel cavalry, said to be a portion of WHITE's command, crossed the Potomac between Watt's Branch and Muddy Creek, and started toward the cross-roads, two miles from the river, where there had been a rendezvous of Scott's Nine Hundred. Gen. HEINTZELMAN, who had arrived there on a tour of inspection, pursued them up the tow-path of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, pressing them so hard that they were compelled to recross the river below Edward's Ferry.

It is certain that the rebels committed no depredations on the Maryland side, either for want of time, or because their object was only to seize a few horses which they discovered on the line of the canal. They probably concentrated, and started from the vicinity of Dranesville, before making their excursion to this side.

A letter from the Army of the Potomac, received to-night, says:

Capt. HART, of the Fourth New-York cavalry, was killed by the rebels who had secreted themselves in thick underwood, and Wednesday morning fired into a party of our men who were engaged in digging rifle pits. A musket ball pierced his heart. His body was buried in the cemetery at Culpepper.

A captain in the Seventh Michigan cavalry was wounded in the right arm below the elbow by a shot. Fourteen others were wounded, including WM. FLANDERS, C. J. BOSTWICK, JOHN MCPHILLIPS and E. BEACH, all of the New-York cavalry, and M. SCHOONOVER, of Pennsylvania.

Reports as to the strength of the enemy on the other side of the Rapidan are numerous and conflicting.

A telegram from headquarters, dated to-day, says: "Nothing of importance has occurred to-day. Our position on the Rapidan remains unchanged."

PHILADELPHIA, Friday, Sept. 18.

The Press, of this city, has the following intelligence:

The whole army was unexpectedly in motion yesterday.

Our army will not have to rest on this side of the Rapidan.

For two days our soldiers had to live without any fires, as it would have attracted the attention of the enemy, who would have proceeded to shell us upon the discovery of our position.

Gen. KILPATRICK made several feints across the Rapidan, but it was soon made evident that he could not live a moment upon the other side.

Yesterday the rebels, who seemed to be in doubt concerning the strength and sincerity of our movements, crossed the Rapidan near Raccoon Ford, and drove one hundred and fifty of our men at the post away; but the regiments of our cavalry dismounted, and, armed with revolving rifles, drove the rebels back in confusion. We lost in this encounter about thirty men.

This morning, according to an important rumor, the rebels crossed the Rapidan again at Raccoon Ford in strong force, and captured one hundred and fifty men of a New-York cavalry regiment.

The rebels have a strong position on the Rapidan, but no great force.

MOVEMENTS OF THE REBEL FORCES IN VIRGINIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Friday, Sept. 18.

Information from parties arrived here from Richmond to-day, who left the latter city on Monday, asserts positively that Gen. LEE has gone South for some purpose.

Gen. LONGSTREET's command has been sent to reinforce Charleston and Mobile, and Gen. HILL's corps is believed to have been sent to the assistance of BRAGG.

There are now about 60,000 troops about Richmond, belonging to the Army of Northern Virginia. This force has fallen back to the line of the Richmond defences.

Gen. SAM JONES has two brigades, comprising about 8,000 men, in West Virginia, commanded by Brig.-Gens. ECCLES and JACKSON. He is about to make another raid toward Beverly. His headquarters are at Union, Monroe County.

IMBODEN has 1,500 cavalry acting as partisan rangers. His headquarters are six miles west of Harrisonville, Va.

The Casualties in the Cavalry Division.

From Our Special Correspondent.

CAVALRY CORPS, VIRGINIA, Tuesday, Sept. 14, 1863.

At an early hour this morning the cavalry corps again moved forward. But a little distance had been made when skirmishing commenced. The enemy were driven about three miles to the Rapidan River, where an infantry force was encountered. Gen. BUFORD ordered a charge, and the charging party was repulsed. Several other charges were made, and the enemy were finally driven across the river.

The casualties yesterday in the whole corps amounted to 60 wounded and 5 killed. Brig.-Gen. CUSTER had a horse shot under him, and was slightly wounded himself.

Annexed is as full a list of the casualties during yesterday and to-day as can be obtained at the present time.

INTERESTING FROM THE RAPIDAN.

From the Richmond Examiner, 16th.

We learn that Gen. LEE's army, or a portion of it, was in line of battle near the Rapidan yesterday, (Tuesday, the 15th,) the enemy having advanced to the Rapidan in force. There was some skirmishing between the pickets; but the enemy having suspended his forward movement, there was no serious collision between the opposing forces.

The Yankees crossed the Rappahannock on the night of the 12th inst., in strong force, with three corps of infantry, five brigades of cavalry and six or eight batteries of artillery—in all about 15,000 or 20,000 men. Their advance was very rapid, but not unexpected. They have taken about fifty or seventy-five prisoners, and three pieces of artillery. Our men fought gallantly, disputing every inch of ground to Mitchell's Station, on the Orange and Alexandria railroad, four miles this side of Culpeper. Our loss is represented to be about 150 killed, wounded and missing.

A spirited fight took place on Monday at Raccoon Ford, in which the Sixth Virginia cavalry repeatedly charged and drove the Yankees back. Their loss was fifty or sixty killed and wounded. Our loss was only four or five. The repeated efforts of the enemy to gain the river were foiled, and we now hold possession of the ford. Among the rumors by the train on Tuesday was one to the effect that a party of STUART's ordnance train has been captured between Robertson and Rapidan Rivers.

It is believed that the demonstration on the Upper Rappahannock is merely a feint to cover other movements—probably an advance via Fredericksburgh—to meet which ample preparations have been made; but it is more probable that this movement is only a "reconnoissance in force," to ascertain the position and probable strength of Gen. LEE's army.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Friday, Sept. 18.

Arrived steamer Sierra Nevada, from Oregon and British Columbia, bringing 200 passengers and $375,000 in treasure, which is about equally divided between the two places.

The brig Tunandra has arrived from Petropolinski, bringing fifteen tons of codfish, which were caught and cured by the crew on the Asiatic coast, where they are found in great abundance, and are considered of equal quality to any caught on the Atlantic coast.

The Convention to form a State Constitution for Nevada Territory meets at Carson City on the 3d of November. The delegates are all Union men.

The Union State Committee and Gen. Sickles.

ALBANY, Friday, Sept. 18.

The Union State Committee together with several of the candidates and other gentlemen met at the Delavan House, to-day, and during a recess called upon Gen. SICKLES. The General in receiving them said he was glad to meet so many of his fellow-citizens, who enjoyed a high degree of consideration. During the past three years he had not participated in politics, and had no wish to do so. He further said that while we were engaged in a great war, there should exist between the loyal States and the National Government unity of action; otherwise the President and Congress would be compelled to use the powers conferred upon them by the Constitution, and enforce respect for the National authority. He was happy to meet them under circumstances so auspicious to the cause. He exhorted them to fill up the ranks of the army, and cheer the brave men who were sacrificing so much for the country. With the inspiring spectacle of a united and happy people, it would not be long before we were blessed with an honorable and lasting peace.

The State Fair.

UTICA, Friday, Sept. 18.

The Fair closed to-day in one of the severest storms that ever visited this section of the country at this season, and very few people other than exhibitors went to the grounds. The streets and roads were flooded, and the people who were compelled to visit the grounds presented a sorry spectacle. All the articles that could be removed without damage were taken away during the day.

The fair, under all circumstances, has been a decided success. The receipts amount to between $11,000 and $12,000. The competition in some classes was spirited, particularly in agricultural implements. There was an unusually sharp contest in sewing machines, on which the Committee had a hard task. Their decision was in favor of GROVER & BAKER's machines over all others.

Democratic Mayoralty Convention.

NEWARK, N. J., Friday, Sept. 18.

Gen. THEODORE RUNYON was unanimously nominated by the Democratic City Convention last evening for Mayor—the present incumbent, Hon. MOSES BIGELOW, having declined a renomination. The election takes place on the second Tuesday in October.

The Republican Union nomination has not yet been made.

Disaster to the Steamer Passport.

TORONTO, C. W., Friday, Sept. 18.

The steamer Passport struck a rock in the Rapids near Coteau, last evening, and sunk two miles below that place. The passengers were saved.

ARMY MATTERS.

Reported Death of General Sam Houston.

MISCELLANEOUS INTELLIGENCE.

SOUTHERN ACCOUNTS FROM CHARLESTON.

The Charleston Mercury, of Friday, the 11th, says that the enemy has refrained from firing since his unsuccessful assault on Fort Sumter. Our batteries on James and Sullivan Islands, together with Fort Moultrie, keep up a steady fire on the Morris Island works. It adds:

"The enemy is reported busy at work on Batteries Gregg and Wagner, having erected a large platform for his guns on the latter, and thrown up an extensive sand embankment on the former. The Yankees are also said to be working on their batteries on Craig's Hill, and building embrasures for guns pointing to Sullivan's Island, which it is believed will be the next point of attack.

The Ironsides was lying in her old position yesterday, opposite Battery Wagner, receiving ammunition from a schooner alongside of her. The monitors remain at their old anchorage. One of the enemy's steamers appeared busy yesterday transporting guns and ordnance.

According to the prisoners' accounts, the expedition against Fort Sumter consisted of twenty-five to thirty boats, with an average of twenty to each boat. The details of men were made from the blockading vessels outside, with officers from the fleet inside to command them. The men knew nothing of the proposed expedition until they had finished their dinner on Tuesday, when they were called up for orders. The boats with their crews pulled up alongside of the flagship to receive instructions. Lieut. WILLIAMS, in command, took the lead. They expected, they say, to meet not more than a simple guard of about one hundred men. They also expected to be able to go through the breach without difficulty or having to climb over. The night was misty and favorable for a close approach without notice. Their calculations, they say, all proved incorrect. About fifty marines from the United States steamer Powhatan form the greater majority of the prisoners taken. They state also that the monitor ashore during the fight, Tuesday, was the Weehawken, the same vessel that took the lead in the attack on the 7th of April.

They admit that the fire from Sullivan's Island in the last fight was very accurate, one of the monitors having been struck on the turret 29 times, without, they say, doing any damage. One monitor had her smoke-stack blown off entirely. The Ironsides was struck 59 times, without, they say, inflicting any serious damage. The prisoners manifest a great deal of confidence in the ability of Gen. GILLMORE to take the city.

So confident were they of success in the late expedition that two boxes were received under flag of truce, one addressed to 'Lieut. E. P. WILLIAMS, commanding Fort Sumter,' and another to 'Ensign BENJAMIN H. PORTER, Fort Sumter.' They were packed with lemons, jellies, liquors, &c., evidently prepared for a general glorification.

The explosion of a rebel magazine on James Island, on Monday last, is said to have been an accident, killing a Lieutenant and five men."

CAPTURE OF A RECONNOITERING PARTY.

CHARLESTON, Monday, Sept. 14.

A Yankee reconnoitering party, including a chaplain, a lieutenant, a telegraph operator and a negro soldier, were captured on the Savannah Railroad, below this city. They had tapped our wires, and were endeavoring to gain information, but got none. Slow firing continues this morning, mostly from our batteries.

Nothing has occurred to vary the monotony here to-day. There has been very little firing. Some anxiety is felt to hear from BRAGG.

THE WAR IN TENNESSEE.

A BATTLE AT LIMESTONE STATION—CAPTURE OF 300 OF OUR FORCES.

Correspondence of the Richmond Enquirer.

JONESBORO, Tenn., Thursday, Sept. 10, 1863.

Before giving an account of the fight of the 9th, I will give some light as to the state of affairs in upper East Tennessee. It is well known to you that about the 27th of August Gen. BUCKNER, with his entire force, withdrew from Knoxville, leaving the country east along the line of the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad to Bristol to be guarded and defended by Gen. A. E. JACKSON's brigade. Notwithstanding the evacuation of Knoxville and the abandonment of the country, except by the small force above alluded to, the Directory of the road, (the President, Col. JOHN BRANNER, then being at Knoxville,) continued to run their trains into Knoxville for several days, although a large force of the enemy was known to be within fifteen or twenty miles of the city, and, marvelous to say, it is the common report of the country that the President and Directors resolved to run the road, declaring they were only common carriers, evidently indifferent whether the rolling stock fell into the hands of the enemy. This they must have known would have been the case. So, sure enough, on Tuesday, the ——, they dashed into Knoxville, and captured their best passenger train and three locomotives. On the same day our little force at the Plains was withdrawn by railroad to Bristol. On the morning of the 4th the enemy pushed up to Mossy Creek, captured a train and then run into Jonesboro, one hundred miles distant from Knoxville, with four hundred men, and there took another.

A small company of cavalry, under Capt. JONES, at this latter place, after firing a volley into the enemy, made their escape.

The enemy then pushed on to Carter's Bridge, where was stationed a small force of infantry and one section of artillery, under the accomplished Capt. MCCLUNG, and demanded its surrender, when, upon refusal, they retreated toward Knoxville.

Having learned the above facts, Gen. JACKSON, who was at Bristol with the principal part of his forces, with a regiment of Kentucky cavalry and some other forces that had recently joined him, made a forced march for Jonesboro, at which place he arrived on the morning of the 7th. Here he learned that the enemy was returning in full force by railway, so he promptly threw forward a battalion of cavalry (Col. GILTNER's regiment,) a section of artillery and a detachment of infantry.

A few miles below Jonesboro they found five or six hundred of the enemy and a train of cars, unable to proceed on account of the destruction of a small bridge, effected by our scouts the day before. An attack was at once made upon them, Col. GILTNER commanding the cavalry, and Lieut. J. E. GRAHAM the artillery. They were driven back near a half mile, but the enemy gaining a shelter, our forces were compelled to fall back to their first position, having, at the risk of losing our cannon, incautiously advanced too far.

Seizing this moment of temporary advantage, the enemy gained the railroad and got away with their train. Having previously sent a squad of cavalry to destroy the railroad in their rear, our forces, now joined by Lieut. J. W. BLACKWELL, with an 8-inch rifle gun, pursued with vigor, expecting momentarily to capture the train and forces, but our scouts had so ineffectually done their work that the enemy passed down the Limestone Bridge, seizing the heights and woods around the block-house at the bridge, and sending their train toward Knoxville for reinforcements. Having now possession of the block-house and the thick woods around it, the enemy resolved to make a bold stand.

Gen. JACKSON at once ordered Col. GILTNER's cavalry to cross Limestone Creek to cut off the retreat of the enemy, while our artillery—one rifle gun and one small one-pound mountain gun—opened fire upon the depot, block-house and other buildings occupied by the enemy, while Major MCCAULEY's detachment of THOMAS' Legion was posted in rear of the battery.

Just at this time Lieut.-Col. M. A. HAYNES, of the artillery, and Lieut.-Col. WALKER, with a detachment of THOMAS' Legion, were ordered from Jonesboro to reinforce Gen. JACKSON. After this fire had been opened some forty minutes, Col. HAYNES brought gallantly forward, at a gallop, Lieut. GRAHAM's section of artillery, (BURROUGH's Battery,) which also opened briskly. The enemy's sharpshooters in the woods, meanwhile, kept up an incessant fire on the batteries.

By this time Col. GILTNER had taken possession of the south side of the bridge, dismounted and deployed his men as skirmishers, and after a spirited engagement, drove the enemy across the creek, and held the railroad and south end of the bridge. In this latter engagement, and up to the time of the capture of the enemy, Col. GILTNER had the valuable services of Lieut.-Col. BOTTLES, of the Twenty-sixth Tennessee Regiment, who, being absent from his command at Chattanooga, volunteered his services for the occasion.

Just as this feat was accomplished by Col. GILTNER, Lieut.-Col. WALKER's battalion, of THOMAS' legion, was thrown out to the left, through a skirt of timbers on the left of the enemy's sharpshooters, and the artillery, led by Col. HAYNES in person, advanced to within two hundred yards of the roads occupied by the enemy, and opened a rapid fire of shell and canister upon the sharpshooters. At the same time the infantry upon the left of the artillery drove in the enemy at a double-quick, where they took refuge in the block-house and other buildings, from which they kept up a rapid fire.

Advancing at a trot, Col. HAYNES threw the guns into battery, in the midst of a shower of balls, upon a height, not more than 200 yards, and promptly fired several rounds of shell into the block-house.

At this moment the enemy raised a white flag, and Col. HAYNES galloped forward and received the flag and sword of their commander, Lieut.-Col. HAYNES, One Hundred and Fifth Ohio Volunteers, and the surrender of near 300 of the enemy, rank and file. Capt. B. W. JENKINS, formerly of Gen. MARSHALL's Staff, volunteered for the occasion, and Lieut.-Col. J. L. BOTTLES was in at the death.

The enemy's loss was 12 killed and 20 wounded; our loss is 6 killed and 10 wounded.

THE WAR IN GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Saturday, Sept. 12.

On Friday, the 21st of August, a portion of ROSECRANS' cavalry fired across the Tennessee River into Chattanooga. For a few days feints were made at Harrison, twenty miles above Chattanooga, and below at Bridgeport. By the 26th the enemy had crossed at Bridgeport, the small force then at that point falling back, and Chattanooga having been evacuated by the citizens. The enemy's movements were slow and cautious, and at length they passed down Will's Valley, through Dale County, Georgia, in considerable force to flank BRAGG's army on the left, by way of Rome, and the cavalry reached Alpine, in Chatooga County, Ga., on the Alabama line, twenty-eight miles northwest of Rome. On the 9th of September they had a skirmish with Colonel AVERY, commanding the Third and Fourth Georgia cavalry, who fell back after a hard fight. The movement was anticipated.

In the meantime, most of BURNSIDE's forces are understood to have joined ROSECRANS, and pressed in considerable force on toward BRAGG through the gaps of the mountains in Walker and Chatooga Counties, Ga. Small parties of the enemy's cavalry have visited Tunnel Hill, Catoosa and Dalton, on the State road. It is reported that Gen. FORREST was wounded in a skirmish near Dalton yesterday. It is believed the main body of ROSECRANS' army has fallen back to Chattanooga. He has refused, and it is believed will still refuse, to give BRAGG battle, but will aim at wintering in Chattanooga.

PAY AND EXPENSES OF CLERKS IN RICHMOND.

The Richmond Examiner thus discourses of the suffering of the department clerks from high prices:

"It is simply impossible for the clerks in the Departments here to live on their present salaries when they have any one to depend upon them. They have managed thus far to provide themselves food and shelter by the aid of such means as they had, or by the assistance of friends. But their money is now gone and their wardrobes worn out, while prices have gone up higher than ever. It will be absolutely necessary greatly to increase their salaries unless prices come down. Take an example: The ladies who are employed as note-signers receive $75 per month. It is a matter of favor alone if they can get their board for that sum. Their clothing, washing, medical attendance, if sick, and other necessary expenses, have to be contributed by their friends. This, when shoes are $30 or $40 per pair, requires necessarily a large sum. A clerk in one of the Departments gets $1.500. If a single man, he pays, at present rates, from $30 to $50 per month for a room, and $75 per month for private board; washing, $8 per month; fuel, extra.

REDUCED TO THE RANKS.

A letter from the Army of Northern Virginia says that Ex-Brig.-Gen. ROGER A. PRYOR and all the members of his Staff, are now in the ranks of the Third Virginia cavalry, of FITZHUGH LEE's brigade. Says the writer: "Gen. PRYOR was put on double duty, not long since, for missing 'roll-call.' Lieut. Col. ———, of a Virginia regiment, is also a private in the Third Virginia. This war has conclusively shown that distinguished politicians do not always make successful warriors."

FEDERALS IN SOUTHWESTERN VIRGINIA.

LYNCHBURGH, Saturday, Sept. 12.

A Yankee Lieutenant and seventeen men were captured yesterday morning by the militia on Walker's Mountain, twelve miles from Marion, in Smythe County. They were making their way to the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad, with the intention to arrive there in time to catch a train after dark. They were armed only with navy revolvers. They say there are 800 more in Abbs's Valley, in Tazewell County.

Apprehensions are felt here of a raid on the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad. The telegraph operators, CROWLEY and NELSON, were certainly captured by the Yankees.

FROM EAST TENNESSEE.

The Lynchburgh papers contain some information in regard to matters in East Tennessee. Of the reported surrender of the Confederate forces at Cumberland Gap, the Republican says:

"It was rumored in Abingdon on Friday last that Cumberland Gap had been surrendered by our forces, and the rumor found its way here by the train on Saturday, with the addition that the enemy had taken two thousand prisoners. We are able to state that the latest information up to Friday, late in the day, received by Gen. JONES at his headquarters, was to the effect that fighting at that point had been going on from Tuesday last up to late on Wednesday night, and he denied having received any dispatch from that point regarding the rumors referred to."

The fact that Gen. ROSECRANS has already forwarded 1,000 of these prisoners to Louisville, Ky., and the remainder are on the way, should be conclusive as to the fact of the capture.—ED. TIMES.

RECENT REBEL PROMOTIONS.

Among the recent promotions in the army are the following:

Col. H. W. Allen, of Louisiana, to be Brigadier-General, to rank from Aug. 19.

Col. C. A. Rattle, of Alabama, to rank as Brigadier-General, from Aug. 20.

Col. Wm. A. Quarles, of Tennessee, to rank as Brigadier-General, from Aug. 25.

Col. Goode Bryan, of Georgia, and Col. W. H. Kirkland, of North Carolina, to rank as Brigadier Generals, from Aug. 29.

Col. Robert D. Johnson, of North Carolina, to rank as Brigadier-General, from Sept. 1.

Col. M. C. Butler, of South Carolina, and Col. Williams C. Wickham, of Virginia, to be Brigadier Generals of cavalry from Sept. 1.

GEN. HOLMES NOT DEAD.

The Mobile Tribune is informed by a gentleman who left Little Rock, Ark., on the 20th ult., that the rumor of the death of Gen. HOLMES is not true. Our informant says that he has been very ill, but was rapidly mending. Gen. PRICE was in command of the forces in that quarter.

MRS. LINCOLN'S SISTER.

Mrs. CLEM WHITE, of Selma, a sister of Mrs. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, recently presented a Confederate Jack to the gunboat Huntsville, at Mobile.

DEATH OF GEN. HOUSTON.

Gen. SAM HOUSTON died at his residence in Huntersville, Texas, on the 25th of July. He was 70 years of age. So says the Richmond Whig.

FROM THE SOUTHWEST.

Martial Law to be Rigidly Enforced in Gen. Schofield's Department.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Friday, Sept. 18.

Gen. SCHOFIELD has issued a general order stating that hereafter martial law will be rigidly enforced throughout this Department against all persons who shall in any manner encourage mutiny and insubordination, or endeavor to create disaffection among the troops, and against all persons who shall publish or utter publicly words calculated to excite insurrection or lawless acts among the people, or who shall publish falsehoods or misrepresentations of facts calculated to embarrass or weaken the military authority, or in any manner interfere with them in the discharge of their duties. Any person guilty of either of the offences above mentioned shall be punished by fine and imprisoned at the discretion of the military commission; and any newspaper which shall contain publications in violation of this order will be suppressed.

GEN. ROSECRANS' ARMY.

Proximity of the Opposing Forces.

Reported Arrival of Longstreet's Corps at Resaca, Georgia.

OCCASIONAL SKIRMISHING.

HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD, CHATTANOOGA, Thursday, Sept. 17.

All is quiet. No attack has been made. The enemy remains in possession of the gaps of Pigeon Mountains and about Lafayette. The lines are very close, and there is occasional skirmishing.

Cap. DRURY, Chief of Artillery of Gen. VAN CLEVE's Staff, was shot in the bowels by a sharpshooter. The wound is dangerous.

It is reported that LONGSTREET has arrived at Resaca with 20,000 men.

Our army is in splendid health and spirits.

[Resaca, at which LONGSTREET's corps is reported to have arrived, is a point on the Western Georgia Railroad, about 40 miles south of Chattanooga.—ED. TIMES.]

FROM MEMPHIS.

The Alleged Union Sentiment—Sufferings of Loyalists—The Reopening of the Mississippi.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Monday, Sept. 7, 1863.

Although much has been written and said in regard to the Union sentiment in the South, yet very much of it is false, or conveys a very false idea. The statement that there is a strong Union sentiment in West Tennessee must be received with proper allowances. Very many of those who were most bitter in their hatred to the Union joined the rebel army and have gone South, and their property has been appropriated by Government.

Of those that remain, nearly all profess to be loyal, but frequently it is merely a profession—a forced loyalty; there is no reality in it. They are kept down by force of arms. They are tired of the war, because they have lost all hope of success. Their hatred toward the North and northern institutions is tenfold increased. The other day one of them said to me: "You needn't think that you Northerners are coming down here after the war is over to do just as you please. It is all very well now, but such things must be stopped."

It is true that there are a large number who are led by their interest to take a different view of the subject. Though they dislike to acknowledge it, yet they admire the energy and business talent of the people of the North, and welcome them with open arms.

There are some some who are even rank Abolitionists. One man told me that he was a violent Secessionist for some time after the country was occupied by the Federals, until he became convinced that it would result in the final overthrow of Slavery, and then he became a devoted friend of the Union. This class, however, is small, and includes only those who have not been blinded by Slavery and the slave interest. I have talked with slaveowners from Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi, and they were all very willing to submit if the President would withdraw the Emancipation order and the Confiscation act should be repealed, and a few such slight concessions made to the rebels. We tried to convince them that to talk thus was supreme nonsense: that the sooner the States which are in rebellion would lay down their arms and return to the Union, the better would be the terms of their reception.

I have conversed with prisoners—those who were taken under MORGAN and those captured at other places—and they almost invariably say that if they shall be permitted to live under the Government as it was, it is all that they ask and more than they expect. Some, even, went so far as to declare that the old United States was the best government that ever existed; that they were wrong in resisting it, and that they are ready to return to their allegiance. Statements made by men in their situation must be received with considerable allowance, yet no doubt there is a great deal of truth in them. There is a large class here, however, who never were anything but devoted friends of the Union. When the vote was first taken on the ordinance of secession in Tennessee, there was a majority against it of 60,000. It is true that many of these, either enticed by the blandishments or intimidated by the threats of their leaders, went over to the enemy, but there were thousands whom even the sight of a halter could not move. They have suffered everything but death, and in some cases have even given up their lives for their devotion to the old flag.

Even now their trials are by no means ended. Many of them have lost all their property, and have nothing left but poverty and destitution. In remote districts they are exposed to the attacks of bands of guerrillas, who are worse in their fiendish cruelty than the savage of the forest.

It is impossible for them to obtain arms with which to defend themselves, and unless something is speedily done their case is hopeless indeed. Much dissatisfaction is expressed against Gen. HURLBUT for not rendering aid to those deserving it, yet it is not in the power of man to do immediately all that ought to be done. Some who are most clamorous for protection would, if they had their deserts, be hung to the nearest tree. Thus the innocent have to suffer for the sins of the guilty, and discord reigns instead of justice.

The great benefit which was expected from the reopening of the Mississippi has not been realized to any extent. The restrictions laid on trade are so heavy that very little is done. The people are so impoverished by the war that they have nothing to buy with. The crops are destroyed, cotton is very limited in supply, and mostly in the hands of the Government. Though the process of going out of the Union was rapid, the rebel leaders well knowing that unless it should be done quickly it could never be accomplished; yet the return is a long, tedious process. Men who have never been Secessionists think that they ought to be protected in their rights by Government, without any action on their part; men who have taken the oath of allegiance, suppose that this is all that is required of them; those who are still in open rebellion are waiting to get the best terms possible from Government; while, on the other hand, Government is anxiously waiting for the rebelled States to make overtures of peace.

How long this state of things will last it is impossible to tell. More than a year ago the Union troops occupied Memphis, and in that time much has been accomplished. Steamers ply regularly to Cairo and points above. Business is slowly reviving, the work of building and repairing has commenced, and signs of returning confidence are exhibited on every hand. It is evident that brighter days are in store for Tennessee. The night has nearly passed; the morning is breaking. The Unionists are banding together and gaining new strength. Union meetings are held, and Union Leagues are springing up on every hand. But it will be a long time before the country fully recovers from the devastating effect of the war. Those who have remained faithful to the Union through the struggle, have indeed passed through a fiery ordeal, but their devotion is stronger than ever, and their patriotism shines with a purer light. Those who have forfeited all claim to protection, and severed every tie of humanity, by their unholy deeds, are suffering a righteous retribution. Politicians may croak, but in the end the Government will be stronger than ever before. The price of secession is far too great; though there be wrongs, yet men will rather "bear those ills they have than fly to others that they know not of."

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

NEWBERN, N. C., Monday, Sept. 14.

The death of Capt. WM. J. HOTCHKISS, of the gunboat Gen. Putnam, who was killed in a recent action with the enemy, has caused universal grief in this Department, where he has been the hero of many brilliant engagements. He is from Derby, Conn., which State has gained an enviable reputation in North Carolina by his noble deeds and those of her famous Tenth regiment.

The rebel privateers are running the blockade into Wilmington to a fearful extent. It is estimated that they are carrying in rebel supplies to the amount of a million of dollars per day.

Peace meetings are being held in nearly every town in North Carolina. The course of Hon. W. W. HOLDEN, of the Raleigh (N. C.) Standard, meets with general approval and support from the people.

Mr. HOLDEN's name is being hoisted as the next candidate for the Governorship of North Carolina.

The Congressional election in this State will take place in November next, having been changed from August.

The Conservative Peace Party are making their nominations with the view of sending their Representatives to the National Congress, in case the army of Gen. LEE should be driven out of Virginia.

Major EDWIN S. JENNEY, of the Third New-York artillery, has been appointed Judge-Advocate, and is attached to the Staff of Major-Gen. PECK.

As a tribute of respect to the late Mrs. J. J. BOWEN, wife of Capt. BOWEN, of Marblehead City, the vessels in the harbor lowered their colors to half-mast to-day.

FRIDAY, Sept. 18—P. M.

The price of Gold went up ¾@1 ℘ cent. to-day on the continued active demand for Customs and several adverse rumors from the armies of the Potomac and East Tennessee. The sales through the forenoon were at 133@133¼ ℘ cent., and first-class Bankers Exchange on London, 146@146½ ℘ cent. Later in the day, at the Second Board, some orders from Philadelphia—probably based on army rumors—appeared at 133⅝@¾ ℘ cent. The Exchanges for Saturday's mail were unsettled by this advance; first-class Bankers on London, 146½@147 ℘ cent.

The Associated Banks had on hand this morning $23,500,000 in United States Legal-tender Circulation, and after paying into the Treasury the Installment called for on the recent loan, $3,500,000, (and the previous installment of $1,750,000,) will show to-morrow morning over $20,000,000 legal-tender as against $17,000,000 when the negotiation was made. The offerings of money to the Brokers to-day are quite free both at Bank and from private lenders, and in a majority of instances at 6 ℘ cent., though 7 ℘ cent. continues to be paid without complaint on previous loans on miscellaneous collateral.

The market for the Railway Stocks to-day showed increased firmness, the turn of speculation being strongly in favor of the Bull interest, particularly on New-York Central and Erie. Harlem and Hudson were also higher in the afternoon, in sympathy with the first-named Stocks, and most of the Western Roads followed up, though not in all cases in the same proportion. The orders for New-York Central appeared to take the lead in the afternoon, and 136¾@⅞ ℘ cent. was paid soon after the adjournment of the Second Board. The shares with the Coal Trade are steady, and so are Canton, Quicksilver and Pacific Mail. There was business in Tennessees and Missouris at yesterday's quotations. The Government Securities were fairly steady in price and demand; Treasury Certificates scarce at the Board, and the bidding a fraction higher than yesterday.

At 4 o'clock, after the breaking up of the Second Board, the Railways were higher, and most descriptions left off firm and upward:

We learn that the 6 ℘ cent. Loan of $1,000,000, twenty-years' stock, with an annual sinking fund of 2 ℘ cent., recently advertised for by the New-York Central Company, has been awarded to the successful bidders at 101½ ℘ cent. and upward. With the proceeds of this Loan the Company retire a corresponding amount of 7 ℘ cents., due in June, 1864, and which can now be paid off earlier, at the option of the holders, by stopping the interest. The proceeds of the new Loan are to be paid into the Company on the 1st October. Considering that it has been negotiated on a plain 6 ℘ cent. Bond, without a mortgage, the minimum rate of 101½ ℘ cent. ought certainly to be deemed highly satisfactory. It is stated that Mr. CORNELIUS VANDERBILT was one of the largest takers of the loan. He has also, of late, become one of the heaviest shareholders in the Road, as he is one of the largest bondholders in the Erie.

The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Company will probably begin their half yearly dividends upon the Stock of the road, $3,950,000, out of its net cash earnings, after paying the interest on the Funded Debt of $4,200,000, in the course of a few days. The present intention of the Directors, we learn, is to make the first dividend at the rate of 8 ℘ cent. ℘ annum, or 4 ℘ cent. for the half year, payable about 15th October.

The Bond and Stockholders of the old Cincinnati, Wilmington and Zanesville Railway Company will find on another page an advertisement of immediate interest, from Mr. CHARLES MORAN, who recently foreclosed the property on behalf of the mortgagees, but for the common good of all parties availing of the terms of reorganization.

The Dry Goods Trade, within the past week, has been characterized by less activity and excitement than during either of the preceding two weeks. Country buyers had previously made such heavy purchases that the inquiry from this source was somewhat restricted, yet a good inquiry prevailed for all seasonable fabrics, which resulted in a fair week's business, particularly in domestics, and more especially in domestic Woolens. Prices have been generally well supported, though holders of undesirable productions have made some material concessions from late asking rates, in order to tempt buyers to purchase, while jobbers and commission houses have been more eager to sell domestic Cottons, and, in several instances, slightly under the extreme figures of last week. Heavy Sheetings ranged from 32½c.@33½c., the latter the jobbing price. Bleached goods were in fair request, mainly such as were obtainable at 27½c.@28½c. ꝑ yard. Ginghams were in light supply, and selling readily, including Clinton at 25c.; Lancaster, at 23½c.@24c.; Glasgow, at 22½c.@23c., ꝑ yard. Prints have been less freely offered, and choice styles have been held higher, but the demand has not been active. Printing Cloths have been in request, including 60x64, at 14c.; and 64x64, at 14½c., ꝑ yard. Stripes, Ticks and Denims have been quiet, at former quotations. Cottonades are selling moderately. Domestic Flannels are actively sought after, but at irregular prices. Cassimeres, Doeskins and Satinets are less active, but desirable styles are quoted firm. Printed Delaines find ready buyers, generally at 27c.@27½c. ꝑ yard. Army Kerseys are in liberal supply, and extremely quiet, though obtainable at greatly reduced prices. Shawls are in lively demand, and very firm. All really desirable styles of imported goods are in fair, though less active request, and command full prices, both privately and through the auction rooms. Dress Goods are particularly sought after, and are not easily obtained, stocks having been reduced very low. The week's imports have been nearly half a million of dollars less than those of last week, and also considerably less than those of the corresponding week of last year. The amount marketed, however, is $149,000 in excess of the figures for the same week in 1862. The imports of Foreign Dry Goods at the port of New-York for the week ending Sept. 17 were $1,231,689, against $1,507,622 same week last year, and $853,501 the corresponding week of 1861. The following is the summary for the week:

	CONSUMPTION DIRECT.		WAREHOUSED.		WITHDRAWN.

The return from the Bank of England for the week ending Sept. 2 gives the following results when compared with the previous week:

Rest	£3,674,187	Increase	£262,111
Public Deposits	6,818,182	Increase	104,381
Other Deposits	13,261,512	Increase	454,944
Gov't Securities	11,091,284	No change.
Other Securities	18,992,100	Increase	857,627
Notes unemployed	8,193,265	Increase	51,915

The amount of notes in circulation is £21,190,615, being a decrease of £197,955; and the stock of Bullion in both departments is £15,494,219, showing an increase of £184,835, when compared with the preceding return.

The quantity of Flour, Wheat, Corn and Barley left at tide-water during the second week in September by the New-York State Canals, in the years 1862 and 1863, was as follows:

	Flour bbls.	Wheat, bush.	Corn, bush.	Barley, bush.
1862	22,200	1,571,000	964,000	22,200

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

The news from the Army of the Potomac looks as if there were likely to be action on the Rapidan soon. We learn from Philadelphia that the body of Gen. MEADE's army advanced to the line of the Rapidan on Thursday, and the rebel force there is believed to consist of the two corps of EWELL and HILL—or about two-thirds of LEE's army. There has been some brisk skirmishing and a number of casualties. Our army is reported to be in the highest condition, and prepared once more to give a noble account of itself.

We have a dispatch dated at headquarters, on the field at Chattanooga, Thursday, Sept. 17, announcing the enemy to be in strong force in front of Gen. ROSECRANS' lines, and sharp skirmishing constant. The corps of the rebel Gen. LONGSTREET, numbering 20,000 men, is said to have reached Resaca, Ga., a point on the railroad about forty miles north of Chattanooga.

From our late files of Southern papers we make a variety of extracts, embracing information of the military movements in Eastern Tennessee, Northern Georgia, Virginia, and before Charleston. Although there is nothing remarkably new in these details, they will not be found uninteresting. Among the miscellaneous information we find a three-line paragraph in the Richmond Whig announcing the death of Gen. SAM. HOUSTON, of Texas. The same paper asserts that the bobadil Gen. ROGER A. PRYOR and all his Staff officers have been reduced to the ranks for incompetency, and are now serving in the Third Virginia cavalry.

The town of Lafayette, Ga., now occupied by our forces under Gen. ROSECRANS, is little more than thirty miles from Rome, with which it is connected by a good road. This town, probably, will soon be occupied by our army if it is not already in our possession. It is a place of much importance, having railroad connection with Atlanta, Macon, Augusta and other important Georgia points, and by way of Atlanta, with Montgomery and other points in Alabama. An advance from Rome to Atlanta, a distance of about sixty miles, would give us control of more than one-half of the railway system of Georgia, and cut off the principal route of communication with Alabama and Mississippi, thus practically confining the rebellion to South Carolina and Virginia. The capture of Rome would, in another respect, prove a serious blow to the rebels. They have there large iron foundries and immense depots of provisions, the one indispensable to the armament, and the other to the commissariat of their armies. Their provisions may perhaps be removed, but the iron works cannot be so conveniently carried off, and would necessarily fall into our hands.

The steamer Merrimac, from Charleston Bar at noon of Tuesday last, arrived yesterday. She brought no exciting news. Battery Gregg had been put in order, and was occasionally sending shot and shell into Moultrie. A rebel dispatch, dated the 15th, by way of Richmond, states that a scouting party of ours had been captured on the Savannah Railroad.

The steamship George Cromwell, from New-Orleans, arrived at a late hour last night, bringing New-Orleans papers to the 12th inst. They contain no news, and not the slightest mention of the great expedition which has been preparing there so many weeks, and the destination of which has been kept so profoundly secret. A Memphis dispatch, however, states that the vessels composing the expedition sailed from New-Orleans on the 9th inst. We may, therefore, soon have something definite concerning it.

GENERAL NEWS.

The St. Louis Democrat states that guerrillas are growing much more numerous and bolder. A band has recently been ranging south of St. Louis in the country east of the Iron Mountain Railroad. It is said to have captured Fredericktown, and retained possession for one whole day. It next entered and committed extensive robberies at Irondale, on the Iron Mountain Railroad, and from thence moved off to the west of Pilot Knob, stealing horses, and occasionally shooting at Union men. Pilot Knob is thought not to be free from danger, and some Union men in that section are bringing their most valuable effects to St. Louis for safety.

The British pirate Alabama, on the 3d of June, in latitude 23°, 36′ south, longitude 34°, 44′ west, fell in with the British bark Azzopardi, from Boston, bound to the Isle of France, and detained her five hours, as she had been originally an American vessel. SEMMES was exceedingly loth to let her go as he suspected that her British register was a sham, and the fact that she was from Boston seemed to confirm his suspicions; but as there was a doubt, he gave the bark the benefit of it and allowed her to depart. She arrived safely at her destination previous to Aug. 6.

A letter received in New-Bedford, Mass., from Morehead City, N. C., dated Sept. 7, reports that the Quaker City, having been temporarily repaired, started on the 4th inst. for Philadelphia, in company with the Connecticut and Aries. When about forty miles out, however, she was found to be leaking so badly as to make it necessary for her to put back, which she did, accompanied by the Connecticut. It was found hard work to keep her free with the pumps all going, and at 7 P. M., the water still gaining, the Captain called on all hands to do their duty and stand by him to the last, and he would try to save the vessel. The crew responded with three cheers, and then drew lots to see who should have charge of the boats. Fortunately they were not obliged to leave the vessel, which was safely brought into port at Morehead City on the following morning. She has been run up on the beach, to await for materials and men from the North to put her in sailing condition.

The United States gunboat Ladona has arrived at the Philadelphia Navy-yard, where she will be repaired.

The Trenton Republican states that about 6,000 volunteers have been raised in New-Jersey under the last call, leaving a deficiency of 2,900.

In the Court of Sessions, yesterday, before Judge MCCUNN, BRIDGET HOFFMAN, convicted on Friday of attempt at arson, was sentenced to the State Prison for two years. ROSANNA QUINLAN, convicted some months ago of grand larceny, was sentenced to the State Prison for two years, and a stay of proceedings granted to enable the defence to carry up a question of law arising in the case, to the Supreme Court. No cases being ready for trial the Court adjourned to Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

The share speculation took a strong upward turn yesterday, and at the close of the day the advance on New-York Central was 2½@3 ₩ cent., and on Erie 1½@2 ₩ cent. over the sales of Thursday. The price of Gold rose 1¼ ₩ cent. Exchange went up to 146½@147 ₩ cent. Money in easy supply at 6@7 ₩ cent.

Breadstuffs were in good request yesterday Flour and Wheat were again dearer; Oats, cheaper. Provisions and Groceries were less active. Cotton was in fair demand and advancing. Whisky was quiet but steady. Hay, Hops, Leather, Whale Oil, Tallow, Wool and Tobacco were selling freely. At the public sales of dry goods, the attendance was good, and, for all desirable fabrics, satisfactory prices were realized. Freights were somewhat brisker and firmer.

The Mysteries of the War.

The Latins said that the mysterious, or the unknown, was always sublime—omne ignotum pro magnifico; and if this be correct, the war and its campaigns must at this moment be characterized as altogether magnificent. We are quite at a loss as to the position of the two rebel armies which we have been accustomed to call their main armies. We can get no clue as to what projects they may have on hand, what strategy they may be carrying out, or what is their condition and hopes. LEE—where is he? BRAGG—whither has he fled? We know some places where they are not. We know that LEE has lately abandoned his lines on the Rappahannock, for we have reconnoitered them. We know that BRAGG has evacuated his great stronghold at Chattanooga, for we occupy it. But beyond, we are in the dark. Good authority places the bulk of LEE's army around Richmond; better authority places at least two of its three corps on the Rapidan; and highly reliable authority has hurled at least a half of it down between the ranges of the Alleghanies to overwhelm Gen. BURNSIDE. Gen. BRAGG, again, performed the last of the series of masterly retreats that carried him out of Tennessee by flying from Chattanooga in the first two days of this month; and we know that his retreat was in a southerly direction. But where did he stop? Has he got as far down as Atlanta, as some say, or is he resting his legions at Rome, or is he still hovering in the mountains near Chattanooga, preparing to retrieve his fortunes, and to start with a reinforced army upon some startling venture? If LEE is at Richmond, what then? Has he gone there to stay till we make another call upon him? If he has but one corps at Richmond, and two on the Rapidan, will he expose the latter to assault from the Army of the Potomac, which has now advanced to the Rapidan? In regard to dispatching troops to East Tennessee, would JEFF. DAVIS have dared to deplete the Virginia army at such a critical moment as this? On all these points our readers, probably, know as much as ourselves, and quite as much as is known to the military authorities.

If we might venture to propound a theory which has as much foundation as many other purely speculative theories, we should say that it was not at all improbable that the body of LEE's army is really on the Rapidan and near Gordonsville, while, relying upon the unlikelihood of Gen. MEADE's making an advance at this moment, LONGSTREET's corps may have been sent to Richmond for some purpose; and a division may have been taken from each of the three corps, as one dispatch asserts, and sent down to Tennessee to co-operate with Gen. BRAGG. As to the precise location of BRAGG's army, we can give no information; but the rebel papers we have lately received, give abundant proof that the most desperate efforts are being made to hold it together and reinforce it. There can be no doubt that the bulk of JOHNSTON's broken army has been brought up from Mississippi and Alabama, and joined to BRAGG, and all outlying detachments, such as that of BUCKNER lately in East Tennessee, have also been joined to it. We have no doubt that by gathering in all these, and by adding twenty or thirty regiments from Virginia, BRAGG's army has become quite formidable, and that it is the purpose of JEFF. DAVIS to make some offensive movement against ROSECRANS and BURNSIDE. How far this scheme may be interfered with by the advance of MEADE, we shall soon know.

If we are surrounded with mystery regarding the movements of the great rebel armies, and our own chief armies, we have little less light on many of the minor operations in progress. Where has the great military and naval expedition, that left New-Orleans a few days ago, gone to, and who commands it? Where has the great army of Gen. PRICE, that skedaddled from Little Rock a week ago, skedaddled to? Where is Gen. JO. JOHNSTON's army, if it has not joined BRAGG? What is the real condition of affairs in Charleston harbor, and what are the prospects for the iron-clads there? Descending to even lesser details, we might ask, was MOSEBY's wound fatal; where is QUANTRELL, and is SAM HOUSTON dead? Nothing is known. All is mystery. But we believe that before Saturday of next week all the more important of these problems will have been solved—we hope all solved satisfactorily to the country.

NAPOLEON'S POSITION AND POLICY.—The highly important letter from our Paris correspondent, which we published yesterday, revealed the latest diplomatic manœuvrings of the Imperial juggler of France, who for some time has controlled the destinies of Europe, and who has lately been attempting to grasp and guide the helm of the world. Having failed in his efforts to bully Russia, to wheedle Austria, to use England—to bring about a general European war that would enable him to extend French boundaries, magnify his own power, and dazzle mankind with his glory—he now, after having swallowed the insult administered to him by GORTSCHAKOFF, makes friendly advances to Russia, tries to put a check on the federative schemes of Austria, and treats England with his most "distinguished consideration." It is a feat of legerdemain worthy of the third NAPOLEON. The object of it all is, that, having just made an unsuccessful exhibition of his art before Europe, he might get into position to try his hand on this continent—to carry out his scheme in Mexico, the "grand scheme of his reign," as he himself is credibly reported to have characterized it.

The statements of our correspondent on the subject are founded on greater intelligence than any others that have been made public; but most of his points are either confirmed or hinted at in the journals of France, and in the French correspondence of the English Press.

We shall soon see what will be the upshot of it all; for if the Emperor's European schemes have progressed as far and as favorably as is represented, he will very quickly unfold his new programme. To this he will be compelled, both by the necessities of the situation on this continent, and by the necessity of sustaining his prestige in the world, by some grand and dazzling success here after his failure in Europe.

We need not say how foolish we consider the whole Mexican project of the Emperor of France. And if it be foolish for him to have gone as far as he has, it will be much more so for him to attempt to carry into effect any other schemes on this continent, which his own ambition or JEFF. DAVIS' agent, SLIDELL, may have bred in his brain.

The Rebellion Paying Its Way.

Notwithstanding the frightful ravages of war in the States of Arkansas, Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana, that have been recovered from the rebellion, the injuries inflicted are not without their compensations. Houses may have been burned and slaves may have been demoralized or fully emancipated, but the soil remains unharmed, and it is still capable of yielding in undiminished quantities that staple which the world clamors for, and cannot do without. And it is encouraging to know that amid all the derangements and confusion of the war, and in presence of marching and fighting armies, there has still been a steady and persistent effort of the non-combatant portion of the Southern people to grow as much as possible of that product that has hitherto sustained and enriched them. When we read of an army's march through a State—say Mississippi—and consider the story of desolation in its pathways and on the right and on the left, we are apt to think that a universal ruin has been inflicted. But the fact is that in those immense States the breadth of an army's march is but a line, and the farms wasted bear a small proportion of the myriad farms that remain unvisited and unharmed. And on all these latter, patient industry is doing its work and striving to accumulate supplies that shall keep the owners from the wide-spread want that is befalling other sections.

Agricultural pursuits in the States named are disorganized and badly damaged, but not destroyed. Every effort is bent, in Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana, to the production of cotton. The crops planted are smaller than were common before the war, but the care bestowed on them is greater, for it is known that the yield from them will be paid for at high rates, and most probably in gold. The stimulus to exertion, therefore, is excessive. The prospect of great prices for their crops on the one hand, and the desire of compensating themselves from this source for the apprehended loss of their slaves, is working wonders with the people on Southern plantations—as the amount of cotton that will be marketed the coming Winter will fully prove.

This fact is gratifying and suggestive. It is gratifying to know that the war, with all its injury to the United States, is not going to break up the cotton production, nor impair the practical monopoly of the staple that gives this country its controlling influence over the commerce of the world. The reclaimed States of the South will turn out, this year, an amount of cotton that will surprise consumers. In two years from the present time, if our armies are not driven backward, the recovered States will produce as great crops, perhaps greater than they ever did in the palmiest days of Slavery. The reasons, better directed industry and the extraordinary high prices that cotton, for several years, must command.

One has only to consider a moment the rewards of cotton growing to be convinced. An average yield of a good cotton crop in the South is two thousand pounds of seed cotton to the acre. Eighteen hundred pounds of seed cotton will turn out one bale (five hundred pounds) of ginned cotton, worth now on the Southern plantation 40 cents a pound. The yield is therefore over $200 per acre in growing cotton. It is an uncommon wheat field, that yields 50 bushels to the acre, and a lucky farmer that gets 70 cents a bushel for it on his farm; but even with this yield and this price, the returns are less than one-fifth what they are for cotton. Let the States of Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana remain open two years to the enterprise of free labor, with such rewards as cotton at 40 cents a pound will give, and it is easy to foresee how large a portion of Western energy, enterprise and capital they will absorb. There must, of course, be a large advance in the value of cleared Southern lands in consequence of the increased demand for them; and thus will Southern landholders begin to be repaid for the losses they have sustained by the war.

But already have the planters in the recaptured States derived large compensation for their losses. All who saved any of their cotton of previous years' production, have sold it at four and five times as much as they ever got before; and if they shall be able to bring their present crops to market they will make profits large enough in excess of all former returns, to pay for every slave they hold, and allow them to go free! It is a frequent remark of planters in the States indicated, who have been able to keep their slaves with them, that with their growing crops sold at present prices, they can let go all their slaves, and be richer than they were before in their untroubled possession of them.

In this view of the matter it is easy to see that the protraction of the war against Georgia, Alabama, and the two Carolinas for two years, would be anything but a calamity to the States of Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana. It would make the latter greatly richer than they were before the war began, and leave them busy, thriving Free States besides. The loss of value in slaves would have been paid up by an assessment on the nations of the earth in the increased price of cotton. And if the remaining Confederate States could then be taken back, one by one, and admitted to the enjoyment of the cotton monopoly, they, too, might be emancipated and made rich, at the world's expense, while losing all former conditions and methods of labor and prosperity. A wise management will make the rebellion pay for itself.

Judge Betts' Decision on Habeas Corpus.

The Transcript, of this City, has an article in its yesterday's issue on the writ of habeas corpus, and the effect of the Proclamation upon it, and in speaking of Judge BETTS' decision, that the Court could take no further action under writs which had been already issued, it uses the following language:

> "If this construction of the Proclamation is correct, the instrument exceeds the power of the President under the act of March 3, 1863. We think it by no means desirous to attribute to the President a meaning which he never contemplated, for the purpose of making his legal act illegal by a strained construction. The language of the Proclamation is in the present tense, its authority is derived from a statute which clearly contemplates that the action of the President shall act prospectively. It is not decent to impute to President LINCOLN an intention to do more than the law allowed."

This is strong language, and we think that the Transcript must itself admit, on further reflection, that it is not called for. There is no question, as we understand it, about prospective or retrospective action. The question is, what is the present effect of the issuing of the Proclamation upon the proceedings where a habeas corpus has been issued? Now, the clause of the Constitution is, that "the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended" except in certain cases. And the Proclamation declares that "the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus is suspended." What is meant by this? Clearly it is not confined to the mere issuing of the writ. It means the writ and all proceedings under it. No one would allow that that constitutional provision was not violated, if the writ was allowed to be issued, but no proceedings under the writ were allowed to be had. Hence we are unable to escape the conclusion that the suspension of the writ prevents the taking any proceedings under the writ, and that it is on that ground that the writ is not to be issued, because no proceedings can be had under it. We are unable to see how any proceedings could be had after the writ is suspended. And the conclusion which both Judge BETTS and Judge CLERKE came to seems to us inevitable.

Moreover, when the Transcript speaks of this effect of the Proclamation exceeding the power of the President, under the act of March 3, 1863, it seems as if it cannot have looked at the statute carefully, for the first section of it provides that on the certificate, under oath, &c., "further proceedings under the writ of habeas corpus shall be suspended by the Judge or Court having issued the said writ, so long as such suspension by the President shall remain in force, and said rebellion continue."

So that it would seem that the stoppage of proceedings under the writs of habeas corpus already issued was the effect of this statute, and the issue of the Proclamation is the circumstance which sets this provision of the statute in action. And we submit that if there is any lack of decency, it is in charging the Courts with an attempt to "impute to the President an intention to do more than the law allowed."

A YEAR'S WORK AND A CONTRAST.—The aspect of affairs is very different from what it was a year ago. Then we were on the tenter-hooks of anxiety about the first invasion of Maryland. The battles of Bull Run Second, and Chantilly, had resulted unfavorably for us; our troops had been drawn in toward Washington while LEE's army crossed the Potomac, and we were reading every morning of the raids here and there of his cavalry, of the occupation of town after town by his forces, of the investing of Harper's Ferry and its disgraceful surrender, the marching of our forces, and all the gathering of the storm which, till it broke at Antietam, filled the hearts of the people with uncertainty and fear. In the West, too, Kentucky was suffering from a rebel invasion, and the citizens of Cincinnati, en masse, were hastily fortifying to meet a rebel attack. Loyal men everywhere were cast down; Copperheads everywhere were loud-mouthed and impudent.

The change wrought during the year, both in the situation of affairs and in the public feeling, is prodigious. Victory upon victory has glorified our arms. Kentucky undisturbed, North Carolina heaving and straining at the rebel yoke, oppressed East Tennessee delivered, the Mississippi opened, Charleston shaking with apprehension of the "Greek fire" and 200-pounder Parrotts, the skies bright with triumphs—are not all these things cause for joy and thankfulness enough? It is so long since we have met a reverse of any importance, that we have almost forgotten that there are such things, and that they are hard to bear.

It is very pleasant to have such a state of things; but if it is pleasant, it is not without its dangers. And therefore we warn our readers not to let themselves be carried off their balance by these accumulating successes. No one can tell how soon we may be called upon again to meet the strain of doubt, anxiety and fear. The rebellion seems to be crumbling to pieces; but its leaders are desperate men, and they know that there is but one way to save themselves from the scoff of coming ages, and the execrations of their fellows. If they can gild their crimes with success, they may escape, and they will strain every nerve, until the last man and the last hope fails them. And they have still in their hands a tremendous power. We may yet be met with some blow struck with the force of despair. Let us, then, not be over-exultant, as we should not be over-depressed in times of trial. Let us not bate a jot of watchfulness and zeal in our country's service. Let us still strengthen the hands of our leaders, and do nothing to embarrass their efforts. Let us help to fill up the ranks of our regiments, let us do nothing which shall encourage the rebels, and let us consider nothing is done until all is done.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Sept. 18.

OPINION ON THE DRAFT.

Judge-Advocate-General HOLT has given his opinion that the right of a party drafted to insist on his exemption from service is a privilege which he may waive, and which he certainly does waive when he furnishes a substitute or pays his commutation, and that he cannot afterward be permitted to retract that waiver.

THE INVALID CORPS.

The Invalid corps is rapidly filling up its ranks. Discharged invalid soldiers, tired of inactivity and dependence upon the liberality of friends, are enlisting in such numbers as to make it certain that able-bodied soldiers, now doing guard and garrison duty throughout the country, will all soon be sent to the field and their places supplied by invalids, who being experienced soldiers and appreciating the interest manifested in them by the Government, in providing for them honorable independence, will prove themselves valuable. Thus the Invalid corps, properly called "the Corps of Honor," will be a permanent and notable feature of the humanity and wisdom of the Administration's conduct of the war. To Col. RUSH, the efficient head of the bureau, much credit is justly due.

A SURGEON REINSTATED.

SHERMAN MORRIS, late Assistant Surgeon of the Second New-York cavalry, whose appointment was revoked by Special Order No. 175 current series, is hereby restored to his regiment, with pay from date of rejoining it, provided the vacancy has not been filled, and that the regiment is not deprived of one Assistant Surgeon under the requirements of General Order No. 182 of the War Department.

A CAMP FOR THE RECEPTION OF COLORED VOLUNTEERS.

THOMAS WEBSTER, Esq., and J. M. MCKIM, Esq., of Philadelphia, on behalf of the Supervisory Committee for recruiting colored troops in Philadelphia, had an interview with the Secretary of War this morning on that subject. The result will be the issue of an order to construct barracks at Camp William Penn, near Philadelphia, for the reception of colored volunteers from New-Jersey and Delaware.

HOW LIQUOR IS SMUGGLED TO THE ARMY.

Yesterday Col. BAKER discovered the manner in which whisky is smuggled to the army by a Philadelphia house. It appears that for the past three or four months whisky has, by some means or other, found its way to the soldiers. Yesterday the Colonel's detectives succeeded in arresting P. G. GREENE, and through him captured ten barrels of flour, each barrel containing one gallon of whisky, neatly packed. This consignment was on its way to Alexandria when captured by the detectives. The flour, it is alleged, comes from the house of JOHN STEWART, on Market-street, Philadelphia. These goods are shipped by express, and in various other ways, to avoid detection. The goods, when captured, were on the way to Alexandria, where there is an established agency. GREENE, two-thirds of his time, is in Philadelphia. The price for the flour and whisky, when sold to those connected in the scheme, would be $33, which is a fair profit. The goods were taken to the warehouse of Col. BAKER, where they now remain for further examination. GREENE, after being thoroughly searched, was forwarded to the Old Capitol. Other parties connected in the affair will be arrested at once, and made to suffer the extreme penalty of the law. The mercantile house connected in the affair is very respectable, and doubt exists whether the firm are aware of all the facts in the case. The whole matter will be thoroughly sifted, however, in a fair and impartial manner.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Sept. 18.

PAYMENT OF THE SOLDIERS.

Some of the Paymasters have already started to the Army of the Potomac, to pay off the troops for two months, now due. The law allows $42 a year for clothing, which ordinarily is a sum sufficient for it; but as, in the recent battles, the soldiers, by order of their officers, threw away some of their equipments, &c., in order the better to prepare them for the conflict, they have been obliged to draw for additional supplies, thus exceeding the legal stipulated amount of money. In consequence of the loss sustained by them, they are now required to settle for the overdrawn sum; therefore, their pay to this extent will now be decreased. Without legislation by Congress, there is no remedy for this hardship; but gentlemen connected with the army express the opinion that the welfare and compensation of our troops will not be allowed to suffer owing to their obedience to the orders of their commanding officers, and that provision will, during the next session, be made for their benefit.

DIPLOMATIC COURTESIES.

To-day is the anniversary of the independence of the Republic of Chili. The Chilian Minister, Mr. ASTA BURNAGA, was this morning greeted by the marine band with the national hymn of Chili and the national airs of the United States. This, it is understood, was done by direction of the Government, in return for a similar compliment given to our Minister in Chili on the Fourth of July.

A SECESSION EDITOR WARNED.

EDGAR SNOWDEN, Jr., proprietor of the Alexandria Gazette, has been notified, by the Military Governor of Alexandria, that a repetition of the act of recognizing in his paper the Confederate Legislature as the Virginia Legislature, will be visited with the suspension of the Gazette. The Governor says that the existence of a paper in Alexandria, known to be hostile to the Government he represents, will be tolerated so long only as there appears nothing in it hostile to loyal people.

THE CAPTURE OF MR. UNDERWOOD BY GUERRILLAS.

It has already been stated that the JOHN UNDERWOOD recently captured near Occoquan was not JOHN C. UNDERWOOD, of the Eastern District of Virginia, but a Mr. JOHN UNDERWOOD, a staunch Union man, obnoxious by reason of his having voted for Mr. LINCOLN at the Presidential election, and on account of his uncompromising and influential exertions in behalf of the Union cause since the commencement of the rebellion. He was a resident of the neighborhood in which he was captured, and were it not for the greater lenity which the decline of their fortunes has recently induced among the guerrillas, as well as the so-called authorized agents and troops of the rebel Government, he would probably have suffered death. As it is, he will be closely confined.

STRINGENCY OF THE RULE RESPECTING PASSES.

Col. WELLS, Provost-Marshal of Alexandria, has issued an order that no passes are hereafter to be granted to disloyal persons or to those who refuse to take an unconditional oath of allegiance. No passes will be granted to others than those within the territorial limits of the Provost-Marshal-General's district. The transfer of passes is forbidden, and no family passes will be issued. The forging or transfer of passes is to be severely punished.

THE STORM AT WASHINGTON.

There was a heavy rain during the forenoon, with a light northeast wind. The weather has cleared off this afternoon, with a light breeze from the northwest.

NAVAL ORDERS.

Commander JOHN C. HOWELL has been detached from the command of the Metacomet, and ordered to the command of the Nereus.

Commander T. G. CORBIN has been detached from the Naval Academy, and ordered on ordnance duty in the Philadelphia Navy-yard.

Commander DONALD MCN. FAIRFAX has been ordered to the Naval Academy as Commandant of Midshipmen.

Lieut.-Commander B. LOWRY has been ordered to the command of the Metacomet.

The Tombs and its Inmates.

There are now about 320 criminals confined in the Tombs—representing almost every variety of crime, from murder down. The calendar of cases set down for trial in the Court of General Sessions numbered, at the beginning of the September term, over 200. A large number of these cases will be disposed of during this term; but, with the new cases constantly coming in, there will doubtless be quite as large a calendar ready for the October term. Fortunately there will be two Criminal Courts in session next month—the Oyer and Terminer and Court of Sessions. The most important cases to be tried are those growing out of the late riots. There are between 30 and 40 rioters now confined in the Tombs besides a large number who have been indicted but are out on bail. Among these are six or eight charged with murder in connection with the outrages upon the negroes during the riots. The trial of these cases will bring to light many of the horrible scenes enacted during those fearful days, which, as yet, have been only partially and faintly portrayed. It has not yet been decided who is to occupy the bench of the Oyer and Terminer next term, but it is to be hoped that it will be filled by one who comprehends his duties to the public, and who will perform them, after the manner of Judge HOFFMAN, without fear or favor.

Among the inmates of the Tombs is CHAS. M. JEFFERDS, the murderer of WALTON and MATTHEWS, who has been confined there under sentence of death nearly two years. The particulars of his case have heretofore been published, and are well known to the public. Owing to the peculiar state of the law for the punishment of capital offences at the time he was convicted, it has not been possible as yet to have his sentence executed. The General Term of the Supreme Court decided that, as the law stood, JEFFERDS could be confined in the State Prison during life, but that he could not be executed. An appeal was taken from this decision to the Court of Appeals, where the case is now pending. A decision is expected in October. If the decision of the Supreme Court is sustained, JEFFERDS will be transferred to the State Prison, there to remain during his life; if, on the contrary, it should be reversed, it is claimed by his counsel that this will be equivalent to discharging him altogether.

As might be expected, JEFFERDS is looking forward to this decision with the most absorbing anxiety. His deportment in the Tombs for some time past has been very commendable. He is kept in a cell by himself, and has not recently had an opportunity to play any of those pranks upon his fellow prisoners which he formerly indulged in. The keepers of the Tombs give him a pretty hard name, and none of them have the slightest doubt of his guilt, but owing to the bungling legislation at Albany upon the subject of the death penalty, there is some prospect that the perpetrator of two of the most unprovoked and cruel murders ever committed in our streets will escape justice.

Music in Central Park.

The Central Park Commissioners announce that there will be music at the Central Park, on the Mall, this afternoon at 4 o'clock, if the weather is favorable, by the Central Park Band, under the leadership of H. B. DODWORTH.

The following is the programme:

PART FIRST.
1. Central Park March	H. B. Dodworth
2. Overture—"La Chalét"	Adam
3. La Patrouille "Episode d'Nuit"	Kourakin
4. Selection from "Masnadieri"	Verdi
PART SECOND.
5. March, Op. 40, No. 1	Franz Schubert
6. Overture to Jessondo	Spohr
7. Selection from "Le Profeta"	Meyerbeer
8. Wedding March from "Euryanthe"	Weber
PART THIRD.
9. Polka "Louis D'Or"	Schroeder
10. Barcarole from "Marini Falieri"	Donizetti
11. Sorgenbrecher Waltz	Strauss
12. Quick March—"Parades Dismissed"	Dowling
National Pot Pourri.

Naval Movements.

ANOTHER NAVAL DISASTER—THE UNITED STATES STEAMER FORT JACKSON IN A GALE—SHE ALMOST FOUNDERS AT SEA—SHE LOSES A BOILER AND IS NEARLY BLOWN UP.

The following letter was received yesterday by our naval reporter from an officer on board of the United States steamer Fort Jackson, one of VANDERBILT's new steamers, which was purchased some time since by the Navy Department:

THE U. S. STEAMER FORT JACKSON,
AT SEA, Tuesday, Sept. 15, 1863.

Since we left the harbor of New-York, a few days since, the lives of all on board this ship have had a most miraculous escape—indeed, I might say, a series of miraculous escapes. After leaving your harbor we started on our short cruise and entered the port of St. Georges, where we found several blockade-runners waiting a favorable opportunity to prosecute their business. We left that harbor—had very fair weather on the 10th, but on the 11th we came in with a tempest, which was near being the end of us. For several hours few persons on board expected ever to get home alive. The ship tossed and tumbled in the trough of the sea, and seemed so weak and tender that we looked instantaneously for her destruction. After having worked the vessel, as no ship was ever worked before, we weathered the gale with what we may consider very slight damage, although it will take some time and money to repair her. As may be supposed, on the day after the storm we congratulated ourselves on escaping from shipwreck; but before long another terrible mishap occurred. Through the carelessness of one of our engineers, we lost one of our boilers and were near being blown up. The consternation of all on board cannot be described when this last disaster occurred. We are now under orders to proceed to some Northern port for repairs. The Fort Jackson is a screw steamer of 1,770 tons burden. The following is a list of her officers:

Captain, JAMES ALDEN; Lieutenant Commanding, C. S. Norton; Surgeon, Philip S. Wales; Paymaster Clifton Hellen; Acting Chief-Engineer, Rodney Smith; Acting Masters, W. E. Dennison, R. P. Swann; Acting Ensigns, G. N. Armstrong, Howard F. Moffatt; Captain's Clerk, R. D. Bogart; Paymaster's Clerk, E. S. Hotham; Acting Masters' Mates, Henry S. Eyting, R. P. Herrick, Geo. W. Smoot, Wm. M. Mann, Jas. D. Moore; Acting Engineers, John L. Wilson, John Herron, Charles H. Wakefield, Wm. M. Prentiss, Chas. Wines, Jas. H. Eppes; Acting Gunner, Thos. Reese.

ARRIVAL OF THE UNITED STATES GUNBOAT LODONA.

The United States gunboat Lodona arrived at the Philadelphia Navy-yard on Wednesday evening from off Charleston. She carries seven guns, including two 100-pounders. On the 6th of last January she sailed for Port Royal, via Hampton Roads, with the iron-clad Weehawken in tow. Since that time she has been actively employed on the blockade off Charleston and Bull's Bay. She lost eight of her crew during the attempt to storm Sumter on the night of the 8th inst. She returns to the Navy-yard for repairs to her machinery and hull, and also to give her officers and men a short respite after an active sea service of nearly nine months.

MEETING OF BUTCHERS.—The butchers, at their adjourned meeting, were united in their opposition to Inspector BOOLE's plan for removing slaughter houses, but they did nothing beyond appointing a Committee to keep an eye on the proposed ordinance, and when it shows itself to make war upon it. Perhaps a quiet, dispassionate discussion of the merits and demerits of the proposition of the Inspector may convince them that it is not so unjust and arbitrary as they now imagine, and that in this, as in all sanitary measures which he has adopted, he has sought the greatest good for the greatest number, and at the same time at no time ignoring minority interests, unless they be in direct conflict with his sense of duty.

A MAN BEATEN TO DEATH IN FORTY-SEVENTH-STREET.—Coroner NAUMANN held an inquest yesterday on the body of a man named JACOB RECTOR, who died at Bellevue Hospital from the result of injuries received by being beaten on the head by man named —— BOYLAN. RECTOR was quietly walking along Forty-seventh-street, at a late hour of the evening, when BOYLAN suddenly came up behind him, struck him several blows on the head, and knocked him down. For some time he lay in a senseless state, until finally he was picked up by the Police and conveyed to the hospital, where he died soon after. The jury rendered a verdict "that deceased came to his death from blows received on the head, at the hands of —— BOYLAN." The deceased was 49 years of age, and resided at No. 245 West-street. For the last two years he has been out of his mind, but he was regarded by all who knew him as being a very harmless man. BOYLAN made his escape immediately after committing the assault. The Police of the Twenty-second Precinct are quite confident that they will be able to effect his arrest.

Wills Admitted.

SURROGATE'S COURT.

Before G. J. Tucker, Esq., Surrogate.

During the week the wills of the following-named persons have been admitted to probate: C. Huff, C. Bullwinkle, W. Kerr, C. Motell, M. Kaufman, C. Schaud, C. Becker, A. E. Eugster. They contain no provisions of public interest.

Arrivals in the City.

Hon. H. C. Kelsy, New-Jersey; Majs. Flagg and R. F. Falls, U. S. A.; Lieut. E. C. Haseltine, U. S. N.; Walter Miller, St. Louis, and Chas. Schly, Milwaukee, are at the Metropolitan Hotel.

Sir Henry Holland, Physician to Her Majesty Queen Victoria; W. H. Carryl, Philadelphia; M. Eastman, A. Hopkins and A. S. McKenzie, U. S. N.; and W. H. Henning, New-Orleans, are at the Astor House.

Dr. T. Bell, Louisville; Waldo M. Johnson, Detroit; C. W. Beebe, Ravenswood; J. Langdon and wife, Elmira; and J. Bostwick, U. S. N., are at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

THE SWISS SCHUETZENFEST.

Third Day.

The exercises of the great Swiss shooting festival recommenced yesterday at the usual hour, but were attended by few, owing to the unfavorable weather. The shooting—which was, as usual, excellent—was interrupted at different times during the day by the rain, which also greatly interfered with the dancing and other festivities. Distinguished guests who were expected did not come, but various drawbacks did; and, in fact, Friday may be considered the dies nor of the festival.

To-day, the weather permitting, will undoubtedly compensate for the deficiencies of its predecessor. The attractions are of the most varied and inviting character, and will certainly draw a great concourse to Jones' Wood. The shooting will commence at 7 A. M., and continue until 3 P. M.—the great targets "Liberty" and "Switzerland" in full use. At 3 P. M. the celebrated German Singing Club "Arion" will give one of their delightful concerts, protracted for one or two hours, and assisted by HIRSCHMANN's fine brass band of 20 pieces. At 6 P. M. the distribution of prizes, valued at more than one thousand dollars' worth, will commence, and be conducted with due formality. The prizes consist of a large number of very handsome and elegant articles. The rest of the evening will be devoted to dancing and other festivity. It may not be amiss to call attention, once more, to the fact that the proceeds of this fine festival, in the preparation for which the Society has made the most liberal expenditure, are to be devoted to the relief of the widows and orphans of the poor Swiss soldiers who have fallen on the field of battle or died of diseases contracted while fighting in defence of our flag and nationality.

National Horse Fair.

Yesterday was the fourth day of the above sporting event, but in consequence of the threatening appearance of the weather there were only about 1,000 persons at the Fashion Race Course. DODWORTH's Band was present to harmonize the proceedings, and the day's sport commenced with

CLASS No. 28.—For double teams.

The entries were: Mr. WALTON's double team, driven by himself; Mr. MARTIN's Belle of Hartford and mate, driven by DAN MACE, and Mr. HOPKINS' Shepherd Knapp and Comet, which did not show. After a pretty contest, in which three heats were run in 2:44, 2:43 and 2:40¾, the prize was awarded to Mr. WALTON, as the winner of all the heats.

CLASS 20—Was next in order, and for which it was advertised that Gen. McClellan, California Damsel, Rattlesnake, Lady Suffolk and Tartar were entered. The Damsel and Tartar were the only ones that came to the scratch, the rest being withdrawn, or rather never coming forward. Previous to the two horses starting in this race, one of the equestrian Marshals, or Deputy Sheriffs, who had been mounted on their chargers in a most imposing manner during the four days, rode up in front of the ladies' portion of the grand stand, where quite a gathering of the fair daughters of creation were watching the movements of the men below, or chatting with their masculine friends on the stand, and drew the attention of all, while he announced in an audible tone that "the ladies' saddle race will take place between the heats of the next race; and if any gentleman desires to enter his lady, he will please step to the office and furnish the Secretary with the lady's name." Of course this announcement created quite a flutter among the ladies, and a general inquiring stare from the men who generally desire to invest their loose cash in speculations either of women or horse flesh, whichever may turn up to best advantage; and still greater curiosity was evinced, and eager glances pointed at Mr. HOPKINS, the amiable Secretary, who was seen with his head in close contact with the jaunty hat of a very pretty and bright-eyed lady on the stand; and after a short discussion, in which it seemed the Secretary's silver tongue had accomplished its object with the lady and her mate friend, he was seen gliding to his office with elated manner, as if saying to himself, "Eureka—I have one more to enter;" and it was not long before five ladies who had been entered, prepared themselves to mount their steeds and contest for the $200 gold medal.

In the meantime, S. CROOK behind California Damsel, and DAN MACE behind Tartar—both horses to wagons—came to the score for the contest for the $200, mile heats, best 3 in 5, in class No. 20, for horses that never trotted faster than 2:31 to wagon. The first and second heats were won so easily by California Damsel, that Tartar was withdrawn, and the Damsel took the money—time 2:33½, 2:35.

The last heat was done in the rain. Some time elapsed, when the judges announced that, in consequence of the storm, the ladies saddle race and the $1,000 race between Butler, Fillingham and Prince, would be postponed till to-day—if fair—or Monday, or the first fair day, which will be noticed in the advertisement.

Just after the announcement, one lady made a most dashing exhibition of fast riding on her road to the stables, which excited universal admiration.

Arrival of the Remains of Col. M. K. Bryan.

The remains of the gallant Col. M. K. BRYAN, of the One Hundred and Seventy-fifth New-York Volunteers, arrived here yesterday, from New-Orleans. They were taken charge of by Mr. CARROLL, the undertaker, and will be laid in state at the Governor's Room, City Hall, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, remaining until 2 P. M., Monday, when, with appropriate honors, they will be escorted to the Albany boat, and delivered to the officials of that city, of which deceased was a resident. The honors paid here are under the supervision of the Committee on National Affairs, Alderman FARLEY, Chairman, and will be such as are due to one of the most gallant and thorough officers this State has furnished the country. Col. BRYAN's regiment was largely enlisted from this City; it was engaged at the assault on Port Hudson, and it was there that Col. BRYAN, while nobly leading on his men, was killed.

A meeting of the friends of deceased was held at the Park Hotel yesterday afternoon, and arrangements were made to participate in the ceremonies of Monday.

County Substitute and Relief Committee.

Sixty-two substitutes were sent out by this Committee yesterday; eight of them were rejected. The Committee having been informed that some persons designed defrauding the County by falsely representing themselves to be in an indigent condition, they have taken the strongest precautions to thwart any such purpose. Each application must undergo thorough scrutiny before it is passed upon, and under the searching inquiries made by the vigilant acting Chairman, Supervisor BLUNT, coupled with other careful guards against deception, which it would be improper to mention here, it will be difficult for any one to deceive the Committee. If it shall be discovered that any dishonest applicant has succeeded in imposing upon them, the Committee will make quick work in bringing him to punishment. It has been discovered that some militia officers, whose names will soon be ferreted out, are offering, for a "consideration," to admit conscripts to their corps, and to certify to their membership as having existed before the ordinance was passed. Conscripted militiamen are, therefore, examined with special care, and under oath, as to the time when they joined the militia and how much military duty they have performed for the past two months. These inquiries were too close for two parties yesterday, and they were turned away without aid. In one case a man declined to be sworn for examination, and hastily backed out, when he found that he could not pass without this formality.

A wealthy gentleman of this City, brother of our most celebrated physician, who has been afflicted with leprosy for some years, and had tried the highest medical skill of this country and Europe without avail, has been perfectly restored to health by Dr. SCOTT, of No. 8 Union-square.—Express.

AGAIN NEW TESTIMONY.

READ.

HARLEM, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and Dr. VON EISENBERG operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

WILLIAM LIDDLE,
Harlem, 126th-st., between 2d and 3d avs.

CATARRH CURED.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 23, 1863.

I have been suffering for the last three years from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery and very painful. My nostrils were continually obstructed with a pouring of fluid. I have had frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, generally attended with spitting, often with a fullness of my throat, together with a soreness and a dropping. Dr. VON EISENBERG has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I now feel a new life. The treatment of Dr. VON EISENBERG is as skillful as it is successful; it is impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering like myself to place themselves under Dr. VON EISENBERG's care, with a certainty of being speedily cured. I give this with gratitude and pleasure. I cannot forbear again saying that my voice, which was hoarse and thick when I applied to Dr. VON EISENBERG, is now clear and good; indeed, I feel abundantly satisfied.

JAMES LITTLE,
No. 245 7th-st., New-York.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 8.

I have been suffering for years past from a severe Catarrh, with a great heaviness over my eyes, with a severe depression, great uneasiness, and pain in my head, great difficulty in breathing, and a continual accumulation in my nostrils, which gave me restless nights for several years. I have consulted several physicians, who pronounced me to be consumptive. What I suffered for so long a time is indescribable. My system was entirely disarranged and greatly debilitated. I not only felt weak, but I had a cloud continually before my eyes, and my ears were so affected that I was threatened with a total loss of hearing. I must say, I think, I was guided by Providence to come to Dr Von Eisenberg, who not only cured me of my Catarrh by removing an astonishing quantity of disagreeable matter from my head, but he restored me to perfect health, a blessing I have not enjoyed for many years. Now I enjoy a good night's rest, and pursue my business with comfort. I must acknowledge that Dr. Von Eisenberg's mild and scientific treatment for Catarrh deserves the highest commendation, as the principle which directs his system of curing Catarrh is such as to render success certain.

JAMES FURLONG, No. 556 2d-av.

No. 134 ALLEN-ST., NEW-YORK, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR,

NEW-YORK, July 19, 1863.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CARROLL J. POST, No. 28 South-st.

SIGHT RESTORED.

JUNE 25, 1863.

My daughter brought me to Dr. VON EISENBERG almost completely blind in both eyes. I could not bear the pain nor the light. I am completely cured by Dr. VON EISENBERG, and called now to express my gratitude to the Doctor for his skill and unremitting attention, by which I recovered one of the most precious senses to me after being deprived of it for four years. It is only due to Dr. VON EISENBERG to state that I have tried several physicians in vain. I shall be happy to bear personal testimony to Dr. VON EISENBERG's unrivaled success to any lady or gentleman who will call on me.

HUGH GILLON,
No. 76 Fulton-st., Brooklyn.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.
READ.

NEW-YORK, March 20, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

ANOTHER GRAND SENSATION FOR THE READERS OF THE GREAT SUNDAY NEWSPAPER.

The proprietors of the SUNDAY MERCURY have the satisfaction to announce that they have at great expense, secured for its columns another brilliant romance of deep and surpassing interest, entitled

THREE TIMES DEAD;
OR,
THE SECRET OF THE HEATH.
By the author of "John Marchmont's Legacy," "Eleanor's Victory," &c., &c., &c.
The opening chapters will appear in
THE SUNDAY MERCURY
FOR TO-MORROW.

It would spoil the enjoyment of the thousands who will peruse this story to-morrow, to give them an insight into it in advance. The work opens most felicitously. The early chapters rivet the attention of the reader; but, as the narrative proceeds, it carries you with it into scenes even more intensely interesting than could be anticipated from its commencement. If ever there was a thoroughly original story—entirely out of the hackneyed and beaten track—this is one. No woman with a heart can read it without tears. No student of human nature can fail to acknowledge that the best and worst of human passions are portrayed with masterly skill in its entrancing pages. It is literally CROWDED WITH ADVENTURES OF THE MOST STRIKING AND STARTLING NATURE, and its deep pathos is relieved by touches of humor that have rarely been surpassed. In brief, the great story of

THREE TIMES DEAD;
OR,
THE SECRET OF THE HEATH.

by the celebrated author of "Eleanor's Victory," &c., &c., combines, in its plot, the most marvelous vicissitudes of fortune, with scenes of the most intense interest, and, in turns, excites the sympathy, indignation, astonishment and vivid curiosity of the reader.

In addition to its great literary features, the fact that THE SUNDAY MERCURY contains the

LATEST NEWS

FROM ALL QUARTERS OF THE WORLD, UP TO FOUR O'CLOCK SUNDAY MORNING, renders it a universal necessity to all classes of citizens. Open it at the morning meal to-morrow, and you have the previous TWENTY-FOUR HOURS' HISTORY OF NEW-YORK in print before you. Every New-Yorker will acknowlege that the Empire City has never been reported in any morning journal as fully, as fairly, as clearly, and up to so late an hour, as it now is in THE SUNDAY MERCURY. But its triumphs as a NEWSPAPER are not circumscribed by local limits. In the wider field of

TELEGRAPHIC ENTERPRISE,

it bears away the prize from all competitors. Its special lightning dispatches from Washington, and other points of interest, are up to the EDGE OF DAYLIGHT on Sunday mornings, and often contain

EXCLUSIVE INFORMATION

which cannot be obtained through any other medium. Everywhere the Agents of THE GREAT SUNDAY NEWSPAPER are on the alert, and promptly transmit over the wires ever scrap of news likely to be of interest to any class of the community. An extensive mail correspondence (home and foreign,) embodying a vast amount of general, military, sporting and theatrical intelligence, is another feature of this

UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER.

These specialties have contributed to give the SUNDAY MERCURY its present rank among the leading journals of the first City of the Union, and secured for the Great Sunday Newspaper A CIRCULATION LARGER THAN THREEFOLD THAT OF ALL THE OTHER SUNDAY PAPERS published in this City, combined.

THIS UNCHALLENGED FACT speaks volumes, and is well known to, and thoroughly appreciated by
THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY.

CAPITAL NEW BOOKS
ISSUED TO-DAY BY
CARLETON, Publisher, New-York.

I.—OLD MERCHANTS OF NEW-YORK.

A second series of a very interesting and curious book, by WALTER BARRETT, Clerk. Replete with reminiscences, anecdotes, wit, humor, lively personal sketches, private and public gossip about the old and great Merchant Princes of New-York—a little bit of everything, and not too much of anything. The first volume had an immense sale last year, and the second series is now ready, one elegant, cloth-bound volume, price $1 50.

II.—VICTOR HUGO—A LIFE.

By A WITNESS. One of the most charming and entrancing volumes that has ever issued from the French Press. Fresh, dramatic, graphic and lively, it abounds with the same delightful interest that made "Les Miserables" so wonderfully attractive. No reader of that marvelous romance can be satisfied without its companion, "The Story of Victor Hugo's Life." One handsome 8vo, cloth bound, price $1 25.

III.—HUSBAND AND WIFE;

Or, The Science of Human Development through Inherited Tendencies. An attempt to collect, condense and put into popular form some of the great truths contained in the recently published works intended exclusively for the medical profession or for the natural philosopher. Cloth bound; price, $1 25.

⁂ These books are sold by all booksellers, and will be sent by mail, POSTAGE FREE, on receipt of price, by
G. W. CARLETON, Publisher, New-York.

READY NEXT WEEK.

PETER CARRADINE;
OR, THE
MARTINDALE PASTORAL.
By CAROLINE CHESEBRO.
Author of "Isa a Pilgrimage," "The Children of Light," &c., &c.
1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 50.

Marian Harland, author of "Alone," "Nemesis," &c., &c., says of it:

"I predict for 'Peter Carradine' a wider popularity than has been achieved by any other of Miss Chesebro's books—good and noble as they all are. The story seldom wanders beyond the limits of the country neighborhood wherein the scene is laid, but among the 'Martindale folk' we find a variety of character, motive and action, that calls the author's best talent into vigorous play. There is no danger of our confounding Peter Carradine with Mr. Collamer, or 'Mandy' with Mercy Fuller or Sally Green—while Mrs. Johnson, Huldah Green and Olive Savage, are all types of different classes of everyday personages—each true to the life, and once seen, always afterward recognizable. In this wonderful delineation of character, this thorough knowledge of human nature, and in the ability to reproduce her own impressions upon the minds of others, lies the chief secret of Miss Chesebro's power. Besides all this in 'Peter Carradine' we have a well-conceived plan, moving forward to its fulfillment with an ease that betokens the practiced writer; touches of inimitable pathos; here and there strokes of the quaint humor so familiar to the readers of this lady's works, and underneath, upbearing and pervading the whole, the throbbings of a heart that is a fit mate for the active brain. You are reminded, all the while, that she writes with a purpose, as well as a power, that the earnest God-fearing soul of the philanthropist has travailed here for the good of her kind, not the mere 'sensation' romancist written for the entertainment of an idle hour."

Revised in 1862.

This admirable work is reprinted from the latest revised London edition, on the finest tinted and laid paper, bound in English enameled cloth, uniform with Household edition of Dickens.

CRITICAL OPINIONS.

"The Dead Shot is, in every respect, the best work on the art of shooting for the young sportsman."—Sporting Magazine.

"The book is full of practical and precisely-expressed rules which are fully supported by reason."—Bell's Life.

"Marksman's volume is worth the study of sportsmen, whether young or old."—Gardener's Chronicle.

"This is the most complete sportsman's manual that we have yet seen."—Sporting Review.

"Directions for Dog-Breaking are added, so that the Dead Shot is, as its title professes, the Sportsman's Complete Guide."—Saturday Review.

A PROOF OF INSPIRATION.
A TRUE INQUIRY.
By M. MAHAN, D. D.,
Professor of Ecclesiastical History in the General Theological Seminary.
1 vol., 12 mo. Cloth, $1.
From the Church Journal.

Dr. Mahan has traced out his principles from their roots to their branches, and thence to their smallest twigs. He is like the demonstrator of anatomy, beginning with the spinal column and the main branches of nerves, and following them out with careful and masterly skill until he has revealed the innumerable ultimate filaments that line all the inside of the skin, so that no puncture can be made anywhere all over the body without infringing upon them. Yet while his skill is animated with the severest logic of inductive science; while it is sparkling with wit, glowing with eloquence, and flashing out occasionally with outbursts of irrepressible beauty, the basis and substance of the whole is arithmetic.

A MANUAL OF DEVOTIONS
FOR
DOMESTIC AND PRIVATE USE.
BY
GEORGE UPFOLD, D. D.,
Bishop of Indiana.
1 vol., printed on tinted paper, cloth, red edges, $1.

"The 'Family Prayers' of the late Henry Thornton, Esq., of Clapham, England, from which this volume has been chiefly compiled, were presented to the compiler by a distinguished gentleman in Canada some three years ago. They have been used in his family worship ever since with great acceptance, and, he trusts, with spiritual edification.

The only modification contemplated at first was the necessary change in the petitions relating to civil rulers and government, but on a careful examination of them in reference to publication, other changes and modifications seemed to be needed, in the supply of certain omitted topics, and in substitutions and additions to some extent."—Extract from Preface.

THE NEW FRENCH FALL FASHIONS,
JUST RECEIVED
AND
IN
FRANK LESLIE'S LADY'S MAGAZINE AND GAZETTE OF FASHION,
FOR OCTOBER.

More Fashion Plates are published in this Magazine than in all the other American Magazines combined.

See and judge for yourself.

WHAT THE PRESS SAY OF IT.

"We have no hesitancy in pronouncing it the best Magazine for ladies that is published in this country. It is far superior to all others, and has the preference with the ladies everywhere."—Muskegon Reporter.

"In point of merit this periodical certainly has no superior, if it has an equal, as an illustrated Magazine of Fashion. No labor or expense seems to be spared on it. Its pages are replete with interesting and valuable reading matter, and the Magazine is fairly crowded with illustrations of the Fashions and numerous ladies' and children's dresses and toilette patterns.—Burlington Sentinel.

"It is decidedly the Magazine for the latest Fashions."—Portland Transcript.

"The reading matter is always attractive and instructive, and, being a complete Gazette of Fashion, it is much sought after and studied by the fair sex generally on the Pacific coast.—Tuolumne Courier.

"We have no hesitation in saying that it is superior in every respect to any similar publication in this country. None equals it in the splendor and number of its Fashion Plates; none approaches it in the matter of paper patterns of Fashions, and in reading matter it is none behind its competitors."—Pontiac Jacksonian.

THE TRAIL OF THE SERPENT.

"Poor race of men, said the pitying spirit,
Dearly ye pay for your primal fall;
Some flowers of Eden ye yet inherit,
But the trail of the serpent is over them all."
—MOORE.

A remarkable story, illustrating the trail of a serpent, entitled

THREE TIMES DEAD;
OR,
THE SECRET OF THE HEATH.
By the author of "John Marchmont's Legacy," "Eleanor's Victory," &c., &c., will be commenced in the
SUNDAY MERCURY
TO-MORROW MORNING.

In addition to the very best stories, by the most celebrated authors, THE SUNDAY MERCURY always contains

ONE HOUR'S LATER NEWS BY MAIL AND TELEGRAPH,

than any other journal issued in New-York on Sunday. This is a well-known fact; and it would be placing a low estimate upon the shrewdness of the public to suppose them incapable of discriminating between the value of a live newspaper like THE SUNDAY MERCURY, combining all the best features of a leading daily with those of a first-class weekly, and the no value of sleepy Sunday cotemporaries, oblivious of special telegraphic dispatches, special correspondence, and all the adjuncts required to keep a wide-awake nation posted up to the latest hour on all points which it imports them to know.

This the SUNDAY MERCURY does. This the other Sunday papers do not. The price of the old fogy concerns and of the SUNDAY MERCURY is the same. "You pays your money and you takes your choice." The sales of the SUNDAY MERCURY—TRIPLING THOSE OF ALL THE OTHER SUNDAY PAPERS PUT TOGETHER—show which way that choice tends.

THREE VOLUMES:
LEGENDS OF CHARLEMAGNE,
AGE OF FABLE,
AGE OF CHIVALRY.
Elegantly Illustrated, in neat Box.

Price	$7
Half Calf, library	$10 50

Hon. WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State, says of this work:

"No liberal education is complete without a knowledge of the mythology of the ancients. At the same time, the works devoted to that subject, so far as they have fallen under my observation, have been either too purely didactic for the perusal of general readers, or else so elaborate as to seem to exact more time than they could bestow. This work seems to avoid these inconveniences, and is, at the same time, just such a one as the classical reader requires for reference."

From GEORGE B. EMERSON, L.L. D., Member of the Massachusetts Board of Education, and Author of the "Report on the Forest Trees of Massachusetts," printed by order of the Legislature.

"I have just read the 'Legends of Charlemagne,' a very delightful and, though it is all fabulous, a very useful book. The stories are admirably well told, in language which, for delicate purity and unaffected simplicity, is a model for young writers to imitate. The illustrations are spirited and in excellent taste; and the whole presentation of the work is most creditable to the American Press.

This beautiful volume is a fit follower and companion of the excellent 'Age of Fable' and 'Age of Chivalry.' Together they form the best introduction that has yet appeared to the great and noble body of English poetry.

They will furnish abundant help to the teacher and to the mother in explaining allusions in text-books and in the more precious volumes stored for leasure hours; AND HENCEFORTH NO LIBRARY CAN BE CONSIDERED TOLERABLY COMPLETE WHICH DOES NOT HAVE ON ITS SHELVES 'THE AGE OF FABLE,' 'THE AGE OF CHIVALRY' AND THE 'LEGENDS OF CHARLEMAGNE.'"

THE
NEW AND IMPORTANT DISCOVERY FOR THE CURE OF DEAFNESS.
DISCHARGES FROM THE EAR
AND
PARTIAL DEAFNESS
EXCLUSIVELY AND SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY
DR. HARTLEY,
NO. 10 CLINTON-PLACE,
NEW-YORK.

The only acknowledged Aurist in the United States who generously offers to attend all persons suffering from Affections of the Ear without charge until cured, thereby proving his success unequaled, and protecting the Deaf from being swindled by paying self-styled aurists exorbitant fees in advance, and the infliction of yet more serious evils by permitting the application of dangerous remedies by inexperienced and unskillful hands.

Deafness, noise in the head, and all disagreeable discharges from the ear speedily and permanently removed, without causing the least pain or inconvenience. A cure in all cases guaranteed where malformation does not exist.

Thirteen years close and undivided attention to this branch of special practice has enabled him to reduce his treatment to such a degree of success as to find the most confirmed and obstinate cases yield by a steady attention to the means prescribed.

Persons suffering from any disease or derangement of the organ of special sense may command the services of Dr. HARTLEY without the chagrin and mortification of seeing their names and diseases paraded in a public newspaper.

Office and residence, No. 10 Clinton-place, a few doors west of Broadway. Reception hours from 9 to 4 o'clock. Consultation and examination free.

IT IS A DYE.
IT IS A DYE.
IT IS A DYE.
IT IS A DYE.

In the year 1845, Mr. Mathews first prepared the VENETIAN HAIR DYE. Since that time it has been used by thousands, and in no instance has it failed to give entire satisfaction.

The VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is only FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains double the quantity of dye in those usually sold for $1.

THE VENETIAN DYE is warranted not to injure the hair or the scalp in the slightest degree.

The VENETIAN DYE works with rapidity and certainty, the hair requiring no preparation whatever.

The VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired—one that will not fade, crock, or wash out—one that is as permanent as the hair itself. For sale by all druggists.

Blank schedules will be furnished upon application at the interest desk of this office.

JOHN J. CISCO,
Assistant Treasurer, United States.

REDEMPTION OF CORPORATION BONDS.—The Volunteer Soldiers' Bounty Fund Bonds of the Corporation of the City of New-York, becoming due and payable on the first day of October proximo, with the interest thereon, will be paid on that day, on the presentation of said Bonds at this office.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN OF $500,000.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until WEDNESDAY, Sept. 30, 1863, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purchase, at not less than their par value, of the whole or any part of the sum of $500,000, of "Volunteer Soldiers' Bounty Fund Redemption Bonds" of the Corporation of the City of New-York, authorized by Chapter 25 of the Laws of 1863, and by an Ordinance of said Corporation, approved Sept. 18, 1863.

Said Bonds will be of the denomination of $1,000 each, and will bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of May and November of each year, and the principal thereof will be redeemable on the first day of November, 1867.

The proposals will state the amount of said bonds desired, and the price per $100 thereof, and the persons whose proposals are accepted will be required to deposit with the Chamberlain, (at the Broadway Bank,) on THURSDAY, October 1, 1863, the sums awarded to them respectively, including the premiums thereon.

On presenting to the Comptroller the Chamberlain's receipts for such deposits, the parties will be entitled to receive bonds for equal amounts of the par value of the sums awarded to them, bearing interest from October 1, 1863.

Each proposal should be sealed and indorsed, "Proposals for Volunteer Soldiers' Bounty Fund Redemption Bonds of 1867," and the same inclosed in a second envelope addressed to the Comptroller.

The Comptroller reserves, as usual, the right to reject any or all bids if the public interest should require it.

MATTHEW T. BRENNAN, Comptroller.

PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR HAY, STRAW AND GRAIN.

ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE, FORAGE DEPARTMENT, Seventh-st. Wharf,
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 16, 1863.

Written proposals are invited for furnishing HAY, STRAW, OATS and CORN for the use of this depot, to be delivered at the railroad depot, or at any of the Government wharves in this city.

The proposals to be addressed to the undersigned, and they should state the quantity and grade of each article offered, also the price and the date of delivery.

Proposals will be received for five thousand (5,000) bushels of Corn or Oats, and fifty (50) tons of Hay or Straw, and upward, unless it should be for the interest of the Government to contract for a less amount.

All grain to be put up in good sacks, of about two (2) bushels each, which are to be furnished at the cost of the contractor.

The Hay and Straw to be securely baled.

All Grain and Hay offered to be subject to a rigid inspection by the Government Inspector.

Contracts will be awarded from time to time to the lowest responsible bidders, as the interest of the service may require. Good security will be required for the faithful fulfillment of any contract made under this advertisement.

Payment to be made at the completion of the contract.

S. L. BROWN, Captain and A. Q. M. U. S. A.

OFFICE OF ASSISTANT COMMISSARY-GENERAL OF SUBSISTENCE, No. 4 STATE-ST.,
NEW-YORK, Sept. 19, 1863.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE REceived by the undersigned until 4 o'clock P. M. on FRIDAY, the 16th of October, for furnishing, for issue to the United States Army, DESSICATED POTATOES, for twelve months, beginning Jan. 1, 1864, at the rate of seventy-five thousand pounds per month.

The Dessicated Potatoes must be manufactured exclusively from sound potatoes of the best varieties, and, without admixture of any other ingredients, must be in all particulars sound and entirely free from sourness, and must be ground fine and packed in air-tight tin or zinc boxes containing sixty pounds, these to be packed in strong, well-made and strapped wooden boxes, (two in each,) with sunken and battened ends, like sample packages to be seen at this office.

Under the expectation that a better article will be manufactured and furnished than any heretofore received, no standard sample of Dessicated Potatoes is referred to, but each proposer is required to furnish a sample of not less than three hundred and sixty pounds of his own manufacture, packed as above.

Proposers will state where their manufactories are located, and will briefly describe their mode of dessication.

The deliveries are to be made monthly, and free of expense to the United States, at the Subsistence Storehouse, No. 4 State-street, New-York, or at such other point in New-York as may be designated by the proper authority.

All samples sent in, which are sound and of good quality, will be paid for at the price at which the contract shall be awarded.

Each bid must contain the written guarantee of two responsible persons, (whose ability to respond in bonds to the amount of ten thousand dollars must be certified to by the United States District-Attorney, or other proper officer,) as follows: "We, the undersigned, hereby guarantee that should all or any part of the above bid be accepted, we will give our bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars that the contract shall be duly filled."

Payment, as heretofore, to be made in such funds as may be furnished by the United States.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION.

Resolved, (If the Assembly concur.) That the following amendment be proposed to the Constitution of this State:

There shall be added to the sixth article of the Constitution of this State, as the twenty-sixth section thereof, the following,

Whenever, and as soon as this amendment to the Constitution shall take effect, the Governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint five persons Commissioners of Appeals, who shall have power to hear and determine all appeals then pending in the Court of Appeals, which may be transferred to them by said Court, and shall have all the general powers of a Court of Record for that purpose. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall act as Clerk of said Commissioners, and the judgment rendered by the said Commissioners shall be entered by the said Clerk in the records of the Court of Appeals, and shall have the same force and effect as if rendered by the said Court. One of said Commissioners shall be named as Chief Commissioner, and the said Commission shall continue, and the said Commissioners hold their office, until all the causes transferred to them shall have been heard and determined, but not longer than four years from the date of the original Commission. The said Commissioners shall receive the same compensation as the judges of the Court of Appeals. They may appoint the time and places of their sittings, and the Legislature shall provide for the expense thereof.

But said sitting shall not be appointed for the same time as those fixed for the Court of Appeals; and the Reporter of the Court of Appeals shall be the Reporter of the said Commissioners.

STATE OF NEW-YORK, IN SENATE, March, 31, 1863.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION, PROVIDING THAT PERSONS IN THE MILITARY SERVICE OF THE UNITED STATES, IN THE ARMY OR NAVY THEREOF, MAY VOTE AT THE PLACE WHERE THEY MAY BE IN SUCH SERVICE.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur.) That the following amendment be proposed to the Constitution of this State:

Section one of article two is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following words:

Provided, That in time of war, no elector in the actual military service of the United States, in the army or navy thereof, shall be deprived of his vote by reason of his absence from the State; and the Legislature shall have power to provide the manner in which, and the time and places at which, such absent electors may vote, and the canvass and returns of their votes in the election districts in which they respectively reside or otherwise.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur.) That the foregoing amendment be referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of Senators, and that the same be published for three months prior to such election, pursuant to section one of article thirteen of the Constitution.

MEDICAL.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by Dr. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and expense than any one can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks. Permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No 50 Lispenard-st., the only place. Call, send for a circular, or write.

SURE CURE—BY DR. POWERS, SUCCESSfully consulted with Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st. Conducted on the plan of the Hospital des Veneriens, Paris, where those afflicted with any form of private disease can receive prompt treatment, without risk or exposure, viz.: Syphilis, gonorrhœa gleet, strictures, ulcers, tumors, cancers, secondary and constitutional syphilis, diseases of the kidneys, &c., &c. Thirty years of extensive practice, exclusively devoted to the treatment of those complaints enable us to effect cures in cases where others of less experience have failed. Dr. Powers' Essence of Life restores the vigor of youth in four weeks. This marvelous agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution—physical disqualifications, impediments to marriage, thereby speedily cured. The men to consult, Drs. Ward and Powers, the champions and kings of venereal diseases, possessing the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedies in the world, guarantee a perfect cure, or no charge, in from one to three days. Established in 1840. N. B.—Those who have used their preventives are never without. Send for a circular. To Ladies.—Dr. Powers' Periodical Drops are a safe and certain remedy for monthly irregularities. The above remedies sent by mail. The afflicted should read their circular. Postage free, on receipt of a stamp. Cures warranted.

MADAME RESTELL, FEMALE PHYSICIAN and Professor of Midwifery, who has successfully treated all diseases of Females for thirty years, can be consulted, as usual, at No. 162 Chambers-st., or by letter.

Her infallible medicines for either married or single ladies can be sent by mail. Price $5.

N. B.—Ladies who desire to avail themselves of Madame RESTELL'S valuable, certain and safe mode of removing obstructions, suppressions, &c., &c., from whatever cause, without the use of medicines or instruments, can do so at one interview. Ladies from a distance can return the same day.

MADAME RESTELL,
Female Physician and Accoucheur,
No 162 Chambers-st., New-York City.

Ladies who desire board, and the best medical attendance during confinement, can be accommodated.

IMPORTANT TO THE MARRIED AND THOSE ABOUT TO BE MARRIED.—Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, has just published the 160th edition of the valuable book, entitled "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION," strictly intended for those whose health or circumstances forbid a too rapid increase of family. Price $1. Sold at his office, No. 129 Liberty-st., New-York; or can be sent by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States and Canada, by inclosing $1, and addressing Box No. 1,224 New-York City. For sale by H. RICHARDSON, at No. 1 Vesey-st., (Astor House,) and No. 18 Ann-st.; FEDERHEN & CO., 13 Court-st., Boston.

MANHOOD AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH regained in three days by Dr. POWERS' ESSENCE OF LIFE. This wonderful agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution, radically curing Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, and impediments to marriage generally; Nervousness, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from self-abuse, &c. The time required to cure the most inveterate case is one week. Failure is impossible. This life-restoring remedy should be taken by all about to marry, as its effects are permanent. Young man, are you subject to that soul and body destroying disease, secret habits? Dr. POWERS' Invigorating Essence is a never-failing cure. Sold by WALTER POWERS, M. D., No. 50 Lispenard-st., between Broadway and Church-st., New-York.

A PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE—Containing nearly 300 pages, and 150 fine plates and engravings of the anatomy of the sexual organs, in a state of health and disease, with a treatise on self-abuse, its deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by the report of cases treated. A truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition. Sent, free of postage, to any address on receipt of 25 cents, in specie or postage-stamps. Address Dr. LA CROIX, No. 31 Maiden-lane, Albany, N. Y.

MRS. MAXWELL, M. D., NO. 6 GREENE-STREET, New-York, takes pleasure in offering her services to the ladies who are suffering from Irregularities, Suppression, &c., from whatever cause produced. In order to extend her sphere of usefulness, she has taken a large house, regardless of expense, and fitted it up as a Lying-in Hospital. There the most perfect secrecy is observed, and all the comforts of home in a sick-room may be found. Also, Female Monthly Pills. Price, $1. And where the children can always be adopted.

DR. WARD'S MAGICAL INVIGORATORS, IN the form of Pills, will, in fifteen minutes after being taken, make the recipient as vigorous as if nature had never been retarded or debilitated. To the unmarried or single, in every physical exigency, this unrivaled medicine is earnestly recommended as a complete restorative of the nervous system where manhood has been impaired. Procured of Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st., between Broadway and Church-st. Call or send for circulars.

DR. POWERS' PERIODICAL DROPS are designed for both married and single ladies, and are the very best thing known for the purpose, as they will bring on the monthly sickness in cases of obstruction from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain. Expressly for obstinate cases. Warranted as represented in every respect, or the price will be refunded. ☞ Beware of imitations! Purchase directly of Dr POWERS, 50 Lispenard-st., New-York.

DR. HUNTER'S RED DROP RESTORES the vigor of youth in four days. Restores manhood to the most shattered system. No. 3 Division-st., New-York, the only place. Beware of bogus Dr. Hunters. The City is full of knaves, up to every trick to rob him of his great reputation as a skillful and reliable physician. No other office but No. 3 Division-st. Established in 1834. Eight separate rooms and a private entrance.

NEW-YORK ELECTROPATHIC AND MEDICAL INSTITUTE, (established 1829,) principal office No. 25 Cooper Union Building. Electricity scientifically applied, instructions given, and reliable medicines for domestic and private use carefully dispensed.

MYERS & PHELPS,
Physicians, Pharmaceutists and Medical Electricians.

SOMETHING FOR EVERY LADY.—DR. WARD'S Great Female Benefactor or Golden Regulating Pills. Infallible in correcting, regulating and removing all obstructions, from whatever cause, and they will never disappoint the anxious patient. Office No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, where Dr. WARD can be consulted, confidentially, day and evening.

DR. JOHNSON, NO. 14 DUANE-ST., MAY be consulted with confidence on private diseases. Thirty years in one specialty enables him to guarantee speedy and permanent cures. N. B.—Those who may have been misled by quack advertisements, nostrums, &c., can call on Dr. J., with the certainty of receiving honorable treatment.

ADVICE TO LADIES.—IN ALL CASES where infallible medicines are desired, or mode of treatment that never fails, call upon Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, author of "The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion," who treats female complaints exclusively. Office 129 Liberty-st.

PRIVATE CONSULTATION.—DR. HUNTER has for thirty years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has treated no less than fifty thousand cases without an instance of failure. His great remedy, HUNTER'S RED DROP, cures certain diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury, but possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless his remedy is used. That is what he claims for it, and what no other can accomplish. Its value in this respect has become so well known, that scientific men in every department of medical knowledge begin to appreciate it, for hardly a week passes that he is not consulted by druggists, chemists and physicians in regard to some pitiful patient who has exhausted the whole field of the faculty, and still the disease will appear. Its popularity is so great that there is not a quack doctor in the City that has not attacked it, and when they find their lies are not so easily swallowed, they then pretend that they can make it. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division-st. Book for 15 three-cent stamps, 300 pages, 100 colored illustrations. The best work out.

NEW-YORK COUNTY SUBSTITUTE AND RELIEF COMMITTEE.

The Committee hereby give notice that they have fixed their office at the Supreme Court Rooms, Nos. 71 and 73 Duane-st., up stairs, and that said office will be open daily at 9 o'clock A. M., until the business for which the Committee was organized is disposed of.

The Committee also give notice that no applications for the payment of substitute or relief money will be entertained until the District Board of Enrollment have examined and accepted the person drafted into the United States service, under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1863.

The certificate of acceptance by the District Board of Enrollment must be presented to this committee.

The following Rules and regulations have been adopted in relation to drafted persons in indigent circumstances, who have families dependent upon them for support:

I. The term "citizen," employed in the fourth and seventh sections of the Ordinance of the Board of Supervisors, embraces all residents of this City and County liable to draft and service under the Act of Congress.

II. The words "having a family depending on him for support," which occur in the fourth section of the Ordinance aforesaid, and their equivalent as used in the seventh section of said Ordinance, are construed to mean and include the following cases, that is to say:

1. A man having a wife and child or children,
2. A man having a wife only,
3. A man having children, whose wife is dead,
4. A man having a parent or parents, or other near relatives, for whom he habitually provides.

} Who are wholly dependent upon him for support.

III. Drafted persons in indigent circumstances, situated as above, who upon inspection by the Board of Enrollment are found liable to serve, and who shall elect to serve, and actually be mustered into the service of the United States, on applying to this Committee, and satisfying them in regard to the above points, will be furnished with a certificate as provided in the fourth section of the Ordinance, which will entitle their families to the amount of relief therein expressed, not exceeding the sum of three hundred dollars, which will be paid by the Comptroller in such installments, and at such times, as will, in his judgment, best afford the assistance needed by such families.

IV. In case any such indigent drafted person whose liability to serve has been determined by the action of the Board of Enrollment has a family depending upon him for support, who are in such a condition as to render it, in the opinion of the Substitute and Relief Committee, a case of peculiar hardship for him to leave them, and he shall be unable to procure a substitute within the time required, he may report the fact to said Committee, and on their being satisfied in regard to it, and particularly that he has used his best endeavors to obtain a substitute, they will furnish him a certificate to be presented to the Comptroller, who will thereupon pay to the proper officer of the Government the sum necessary to obtain his exemption from the draft.

V. In all cases of application for the payment of money to substitutes for the drafted persons hereinafter specified, the Committee will require the following particulars, that is to say:

POLICEMEN will furnish written or printed statements, to be subscribed and sworn to by them, setting forth:

1. Their residence, giving the Ward, and the name and number of the street or avenue.
2. Their age, and whether married or single.
3. The fact of their having been drafted, and in what Congressional District, and whether they have been duly inspected by or under the direction of the Board of Enrollment, and found to be liable to perform military duty under the Act of Congress entitled "An Act for enrolling and calling out the national forces," &c., passed March 3, 1863.
4. The date of his appointment as a member of the Metropolitan Police, and the place and Precinct within the City and County of New-York where the applicant is stationed and performs Police duty, and the date when he was so stationed or detailed.

Each of said statements must have affixed to it a certificate signed by the Captain or other commanding officer of the Precinct to which the applicant belongs, to the effect that the facts therein set forth are true, and this certificate must be countersigned by the President of the Board of Police.

FIREMEN and Exempt Firemen performing active duty will furnish written or printed statements, to be subscribed or sworn to by them, setting forth—

1. Their residence, giving the Ward, and the number and name of the street or avenue.
2. Their age, and whether married or single.
3. Their occupation.
4. The fact of their having been drafted, and in what Congressional District, and whether they have been duly inspected by or under the direction of the Board of Enrollment and found to be liable to perform military duty under the Act of Congress entitled "An act for enrolling and calling out the National forces, and for other purposes," passed March 3, 1863.
5. The name of the engine, hook and ladder or hose company of which they are members, or in which they perform duty, and the date when they were elected as such members, or became attached to such company, and whether or not they perform active duty in the Fire Department.

Each of said statements must have affixed to it a certificate signed by the foreman and secretary of the company to which the applicant belongs, to the effect that the facts therein set forth are true; and this certificate must be countersigned by the Chairman of the Committee appointed by the Board of Representatives of the Fire Department.

MILITIAMEN will furnish written or printed statements, to be subscribed and sworn to by them, setting forth—

1. Their residence, giving the Ward, and the name and number of the street or avenue.
2. Their age, and whether married or single.
3. The fact of their having been drafted, and whether they have been duly inspected by or under the direction of the Board of Enrollment, and found to be liable to perform military duty under the act of Congress entitled "An act for enrolling and calling out the National forces," &c., passed March 3, 1863.
4. The name of the company and regiment, or other military organization within the City and County of New-York to which the applicant belongs, and the date when he became a member of such company and organization, also his present rank.

Each of said statements must have affixed to it a certificate signed by the commandant of the company to which the applicant belongs, to the effect that the facts therein set forth are true; and this certificate must be countersigned by the Colonel or other commanding officer of the regiment or other organization.

VI The moneys authorized by the ordinance to be paid for substitutes, as above, will be paid to such substitutes respectively, or their duly authorized agents, at the office of the Comptroller, or such other place or places as he may designate, immediately upon their furnishing him with satisfactory evidence of their acceptance and actual muster into the service.

☞ Blank forms of application for relief under the ordinance may be obtained either at the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, City Hall, or at the Committee Rooms, Nos. 71 and 73 Duane-st.

PROVOST-MARSHAL'S OFFICE, NINTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT, STATE OF NEW-YORK, (7th-av., northwest corner of West 47th-st.,)
NEW-YORK, Sept. 18, 1863.

BY DIRECTION OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR, the following act of Congress and Proclamation of the President based upon the same, is published for the information of all concerned:

CHARLES E. JENKINS,
Capt. and Provost-Marshal Ninth District, N. Y.

An Act Relating to Habeas Corpus and Regulating Judicial Proceedings in Certain Cases. Approved March 3, 1863.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled: That, during the present rebellion, the President of the United States, whenever, in his judgment, the public safety may require it, is authorized to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus in any case throughout the United States, or any part thereof. And whenever and wherever the said privilege shall be suspended, as aforesaid, no military or other officer shall be compelled, in answer to any writ of habeas corpus, to return the body of any person or persons detained by him by authority of the President; but upon the certificate, under oath, of the officer having charge of any one so detained, that such person is detained by him as a prisoner under authority of the President, further proceedings under the writ of habeas corpus shall be suspended by the Judge or Court having issued the writ, so long as said suspension by the President shall remain in force, and said rebellion continue.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES—A PROCLAMATION.—Whereas the Constitution of the United States has ordained that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it; and, whereas, a rebellion was existing on the 3d day of March, 1863, which rebellion is still existing; and, whereas, by a statute, which was approved on that day, it was enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, that during the present insurrection the President of the United States, whenever in his judgment the public safety may require, is authorized to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus in any case throughout the United States, or any part thereof; and, whereas, in the judgment of the President the public safety does require the privilege of the said writ shall now be suspended throughout the United States, in the cases when, by the authority of the President of the United States, military, naval and civil officers of the United States, or any of them, hold persons under their command, or in their custody, either as prisoners of war, spies, or aiders or abettors of the enemy; or officers, soldiers, or seamen enrolled, drafted, mustered or enlisted in, or belonging to, the land or naval forces of the United States, or as deserters therefrom, or otherwise amenable to military law, or the Rules and Articles of War, or the rules or regulations prescribed for the military or naval services by authority of the President of the United States; or for resisting a draft, or for any other offence against the military or naval service;

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and make known to all whom it may concern, that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus is suspended throughout the United States, in the several cases before mentioned, and that this suspension will continue throughout the duration of the said rebellion, or until this proclamation shall, by a subsequent one to be issued by the President of the United States, be modified or revoked. And I do hereby require all magistrates, attorneys and other civil officers within the United States, and all officers and others in the military and naval services of the United States, to take distinct notice of this suspension, and to give it full effect, and all citizens of the United States to conduct and govern themselves accordingly, and in conformity with the Constitution of the United States, and the laws of Congress in such cases made and provided.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed, this 15th day of September, in the year of our [L. S.] Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the independence of the United States of America the eighty-eighth.

(Signed,) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
By the President,
WM. H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSARY-GENERAL OF PRISONERS, }
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 17, 1863. }

BY DIRECTION OF THE SECRETARY of War, all officers and enlisted men now on parole who are absent from the camps to which they belong, whether with or without authority, will immediately report for exchange at said camps, viz.: Those belonging to regiments serving in the Departments of the East and of the South, the Army of the Potomac and the Eighteenth army corps at Camp Parole, near Annapolis, Md., or at the Convalescent Camp, near Alexandria, Va. THE FRENCH IN MEXICO.

MEXICO AND THE UNITED STATES.

From the Revue Diplomatique, a periodical of high authority in France, we translate the following significant article:

"The journals which have incessantly combatted and criticised the expedition to Mexico have, for some days past, thought proper to threaten the French Government with the wrath of the United States. The thunderbolt is prepared and JUAREZ will, ere long, be avenged. At one time Mr. SEWARD is said to have made some vehement remarks to M. MERCIER, the French Minister at Washington, who has felt himself called upon to protest against the language of the American Secretary of State; at another, Mr. DAYTON, the United States Minister at Paris, has taken upon himself to address representations to M. DROUYN DE LHUYS, and has intimated a speedy demand for his passports. Now we are told that a note emanating from Mr. SEWARD is on its way to France, and that Mr. DAYTON will make no delay in transmitting it to the Cabinet of the Tuileries. We have it in our power to give the most formal denial to all these rumors. Up to this moment, there is no knowledge that Mr. Seward has made any representation whatever to M. Mercier concerning Mexican affairs, nor has Mr. Dayton done so to M. Drouyn de Lhuys. However, the numerous questions arising from the blockade of the Southern coasts keep up, at the present moment, an incessant correspondence between the Cabinets of Washington and Paris.

The American Government, which, since the outbreak of the civil war, has shown much circumspection in its relations with the European Powers, well knows that its representations, if any there are to be made, should be addressed particularly to the Mexican nation, which deems it timely to return to monarchical institutions. France would not fail to refer Mr. SEWARD to the Mexicans as the veritable authors of this change, and as the most competent judges of what is best for their country; and unless he would deny to the Mexicans the right of disposing of their own destinies, the Secretary of State at Washington would be obliged to accept as legitimate the return of Mexico to monarchy.

As to the right that France had to seek redress for her grievances by force of arms, even should her so doing result in the overthrow of JUAREZ, now is not the fitting time for the United States to deny it, after having recognized it before our expedition had quitted our ports.

This right is founded on the duty incumbent upon all Governments worthy of the name to cause the honor of their flag to be respected, and to efficiently protect the life and the property of their subjects. It is justified, moreover, by the importance of the French interests involved in Mexico.

This is among those facts of which we must not lose sight. Our commerce with Mexico represents one-fifth of the trade of that entire country; it ranks after that of the English only; it is more than double the commerce of the United States in the same quarter. The importations of France into Mexico form more than one-fifth of all the latter's importations; they had risen in 1861 to more than twenty-four out of eighty-eight millions; those of the United States reached only twelve millions. As for exportations other than those of the precious metals, France holds the first rank; she alone absorbs one-third of the Mexican products that are exported.

Can the United States invoke the necessity of looking after their commercial interests as the pretext for taking part in the affairs of Mexico, when their trade is not quite one-fifth of the united trade of France and England? Our claims would necessarily take precedence of theirs.

On the other hand, if they invoked political causes, if they maintained that Republican institutions are better adapted than monarchical ones to reëstablish tranquillity and harmony in Mexico and to there secure the safety of all interests, the response would be only too easy. It would suffice to invite Mr. SEWARD to reperuse the messages of Mr. BUCHANAN and the reports of the Ministers of the United States in Mexico.

The United States know how to calculate; they will not put the question on commercial grounds; they have too good a memory to place it in the field of politics."

THE FRENCH OCCUPATION OF MEXICO.

ITS DIFFICULTIES AND DANGERS.

From L'Opinion Nationale, Paris, Sept. 1.

That the United States looks with displeasure upon our presence in Mexico is an inevitable, undoubted fact, and of which the proofs are abundant. Reports are circulating of a formal protest—which has not, however, taken place—the origin of which is a conversation held between Mr. SEWARD and our Minister at Washington. * * *

Our presence in Mexico is a source of irritation to the United States. In place of a weak neighbor, they will have at their doors a powerful one, whom they cannot treat with indifference.

Not only does this new neighbor place himself as an obstacle to all projects of conquest or aggrandizement for the future—which latter would not be at all agreeable at present even—but, from this moment, this Power is giving irritating signs of sympathy to the seceded States, considered and treated as rebels by the United States. No later than yesterday the steamer from Mexico brought us the news that the Provisional Government, brought into life under the shadow of the French flag, manifests the rather premature desire of recognizing the Confederate States. We are not examining the fact in itself, we do not wish to examine whether it is very apropos for a Government which does not yet exist, to dash itself against the ill-will of a proud and powerful neighbor by recognizing—the first and as yet the only one in the world—an insurgent Government, just now in a very critical position, and which the oldest and most powerful States of Europe have not yet judged proper to recognize.

But no one will contest that the announcement of this simple wish, even if not followed up, must give birth at Washington to an irritation and a bitterness, the fruits of which we shall see hereafter. The Americans have adopted in principle, under the name of the Monroe doctrine, a doctrine which is not MONROE's, and by virtue of which they will permit no European Power to establish itself anew upon the American Continent. This doctrine is absurd, but it is very popular in the United States. That we have the right not to take any notice of it is not doubtful; but what we have the right to do is it our interest to do? Is it a desirable thing for France to adopt a policy which will place her in a position of permanent hostility to the United States, and which would assure, should occasion offer, their support to our enemies? This is, we must say, the overthrow of our traditions which have existed for nearly a century. France aided, by a glorious and most active part, in the emancipation of the United States. She has no reason to repent of it. She has up to the present time had no cause of serious difficulty—no disputes with the United States. She now finds there an immense commercial market. Their development neither incommodes nor renders her uneasy. Let them conquer and colonize the empty spaces of the new continent, that is all profit for our commerce, and our political foresight has therein nothing to render it uneasy. On the contrary, the existence of a great maritime power, as a rival of England, and filled with old rancors—able to profit from her embarrassments to take away from her her American colonies—formed a useful counterpoise in our favor, of a nature to temper the arrogance of our neighbors, and to render them, when occasion called for it, more pliable and easy to manage. Our position and presence in Mexico upset completely these almost assured positions. By the simple fact of this occupation, America is leaving us and drawing nearer to Russia. A new alliance is spoken of—if it is not made, it will be made; it is one of the elements in the new and fatal current that we have just imprinted upon the world's politics. Why go to look for a new enemy? Have we so many sure friends in Europe? * * * * * *

If, for example, the North Americans, without compromising themselves, without declaring war against us, nor even exposing themselves to our declaring war against them, should send over the frontier into Mexico twenty-five thousand volunteers, who would scour the country and help the party of JUAREZ—could we, while we are in Mexico, allow our authorities whom we had established at Guadalajara to be overthrown? No, most undoubtedly. In that case we should have to send troops to Guadalajara, at a hundred leagues from our base of operations, and it would therefore depend upon some few thousands of men to keep our flag moving over five or six hundred leagues of territory, from Yucatan to Guaymas, in the Gulf of California. At present they are throwing bouquets to us; it is the time to come back. Later, if the parties revive, if guerrillas organize, if the American volunteers should come to the aid of JUAREZ, we shall be fastened indefinitely in Mexico. We should want one hundred thousand men for the police alone of the country.

"WHAT TO DO."—In choosing a calling for life, our natural abilities, adapting us to the one or the other pursuit, should be considered—Can we succeed best as a mercantile or professional man? As an artist or a mechanic? An engineer, navigator, or inventor? For full particulars, read the PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL, at $1 50 a year, or 15 cents a number.

ELECTRICAL.

DISCOVERIES AND RESULTS THE
MOST ASTONISHING.

Electricity will cure disease, and that, too, after all other remedies have proved unavailing.

In proof of which reference can be given to many citizens of New-York who had suffered for years from complicated diseases, and were finally restored to health by a few applications of electricity. The diseased are invited to call at No. 50 Bond-st., and witness the astonishing results. An interesting pamphlet forwarded by addressing Dr. O. K. CHAMBERLIN, No. 50 Bond-st.

LAUGHING GAS

AS AN ANÆSTHETIC.

COLTON DENTAL ASSOCIATION,
No. 22 BOND-ST., NEW-YORK, Sept. 18, 1863.

A CARD.

The public are aware that I have made and administered the Nitrous Oxide Gas for the past twenty years, having never had a rival.

On the 10th of December, 1844, I administered this gas to Dr. Horace Wells, of Hartford, Conn., inducing an anæsthetic state, during which Dr. Riggs extracted a molar tooth without pain. This was the first case of anæsthesia ever produced for surgical operation. This discovery was made by Dr. Wells. In 1846 ether was introduced as an anæsthetic and subsequently chloroform. I instructed Dr. Wells to make the gas, and he continued to use it for a year in Hartford with great success. Soon after this Dr. Wells died, and the nitrous oxide was superseded by the use of ether.

While in New-Haven, Conn., about three months since, giving my exhibitions, I determined to revive and thoroughly test the value of the nitrous oxide as an anæsthetic. Dr. Dunham, a dentist of New-Britain, Conn., whom I had instructed, had used it for a year previous with entire success. He came to New-Haven to assist me, and remained several days. Dr. J. H. Smith then taking his place. Dr. Smith desired to learn the new process, "if it was the right thing." In the space of three weeks we extracted over three thousand teeth without a single accident or failure. I made and administered the gas, and Dr. Smith extracted the teeth.

The insensibility produced by the gas is perfect, while it avoids the nausea and sickness, to say nothing of the danger, of ether and chloroform. In two minutes it leaves the patient feeling precisely as before inhaling.

All chemists agree that it is a very nice and difficult process to make this gas, and be certain that it is pure. I have spent hundreds of dollars in perfecting the apparatus to secure this end, and have succeeded so well that, although I have given it to twenty thousand persons, I have never had the slightest injury to result. I believe the gas, if pure, is perfectly harmless.

The Colton Dental Association, of which Dr. John Allen is the head, (and there is enough of him to form the head and body of an association, even if some of the smaller members fall off,) was formed and is now extracting teeth by the use of this gas. It was thought that my long experience with the gas would give confidence to patients that they were in safe hands. Such, I think, has been the case.

I confess, however, to a little annoyance in seeing dentists who are no chemists, and whose experience in making the gas has been confined to a few weeks, advertise themselves as "sole manufacturer of anæsthetic nitrous oxide." Another advertises that he was "the original demonstrator of the anæsthetic properties of the nitrous oxide gas in the extraction of teeth, and who, with his own hand extracted, in New-Haven, Conn., over three thousand teeth in the short time of three weeks." He forgot to tell the public that I made and administered the gas for those three thousand teeth, and that his "demonstration" only consisted in drawing them!

Much of the apparatus offered for sale is worse than useless, for I am certain that no pure gas can be made by it. My only interest in this matter is, that I am anxious that no accident shall happen with the gas.

I give instructions, with the benefit of my long experience, to dentists, for a small consideration. With such instructions I furnish a certificate of ability. Any dentists who receive instructions from me, will show their certificates if asked. This certificate will also have the indorsement of the Colton Dental Association.

Those who desire my services in administering the gas will find me at the rooms of the Association, No. 22 Bond-st., from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. We certainly do extract teeth without pain.

CERTIFICATE.

This is to certify that about 18 months ago, I commenced using STERLING'S AMBROSIA. My hair was short, thin, and rapidly falling off. I had tried many Hair Tonics, Invigorators, &c., without receiving any benefit. Soon after using the Ambrosia, my hair ceased falling out, and commenced growing so rapidly as to astonish me. Now my hair is thick, soft and glossy, and is five feet and four inches in length—when let down reaching to the floor. This wonderful result I attribute solely to the use of STERLING'S AMBROSIA, as since I have commenced using it I have applied nothing else to my hair.

IODINE WATER:

A SOLUTION OF PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

IT ACTS UPON THE HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS, AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,
AND HAS GREAT CONTROL OVER
SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

It dissolves metallic mercury and all the mercurial compounds which can possibly occur in the living body.

AS A TONIC,

its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine Water. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

The unparalleled success in private practice and the indorsement of

enables us to recommend

IODINE WATER

as a specific cure for the following diseases, viz.: Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Bronchitis, Heart, Liver and Kidey Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Female Weaknesses, Dyspepsia, Syphilis, and Mercurial Disease.

Full directions accompanying each bottle.

Price $1 per bottle; $5 per half dozen. Sold by Druggists, or sent by express on receipt of price.

All consultations free. DR. H. ANDERS & CO., Physicians and Chemists, No. 428 Broadway, N. Y.

CERTIFICATE OF ANALYSIS.

I have analyzed the "IODINE WATER" prepared by Dr. Anders, and find it to be a solution of pure Iodine in water. It has long been a desideratum to prepare Iodine so that it can be administered in its uncombined state; this preparation by Dr. Anders enables us to effect that object. Each fluid ounce of the water contains about half a grain of Iodine. I consider it a valuable preparation, and one which will prove serviceable in all those cases where the use of Iodine is indicated.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D., Chemist.

Certificate from Prof. James C. Booth, United States Mint, Philadelphia.

Dr. Henry Anders:

The sample of IODINE WATER tested by me I find to be Iodine dissolved in pure water.

Respectfully yours,
JAMES C. BOOTH.

TESTIMONIALS.

Remarks from the American Medical Monthly, edited by Edward H. Parker, A. M., M. D., late Professor of Anatomy in the New-York Medical College:

IODINE WATER.—Samples of a preparation with this name have been sent to us by Dr. Anders, of this city, by whom it is prepared. Chemists generally state that Iodine can be dissolved in water, but that the solution is a very weak one, containing in fact only 1.7000 part of Iodine by weight. Dr. Anders states that this is only a simple solution in Croton water, and may be made as strong as ¾ of a grain to the ounce. The preparation is a decidedly brown fluid, with a strong smell and taste of Iodine. When allowed to stand in an open vessel the color and taste both disappear, the remainder being simply limpid water. We have seen a copy of the report of an analysis, made by Dr. Chilton, in which he states that he finds it "to be a solution of pure Iodine in water." It is a question of interest, by no means unworthy of investigation, what may be the therapeutical value of this preparation. If we can in this way introduce pure Iodine into the system, without combination with any other substance, important results may follow. Practitioners should remember this solution when prescribing Iodine.

GENTLEMEN: I have examined your Liquid Iodine or Pure Iodine Water, and find it a pure solution of Iodine, containing a sufficient quantity for all practical purposes, as a remedial agent. I have used it in obstinate cases of scrofula, and can attest its superior value in the treatment of this class of disease. I am fully convinced your solution of Iodine, in pure water, is far preferable to any other form in which it has hitherto been used. Respectfully, yours, &c.,

E. WHITNEY, M. D.

The August number of the Bible Examiner, edited by Rev. George Storrs, contains the following editorial notice:

"IODINE WATER.—In this number of our magazine we introduce to the attention of our readers this medical preparation. We have done so, not for pay, nor because our pages are used as a medium of advertisements—for we have uniformly declined them—but gratitude to God, and a sense of obligation to Dr. Anders & Co., have made us insert the following:

My only son, George F. Storrs, now 37 years old, has been afflicted, for some dozen years, more or less, with painful swellings and inflammations in various parts of his body; oftentimes, seemingly, he was near to death; then a respite for a season, but only for a return of the disease with more violence. For the past three years he has had an open sore on his breast; and latterly one near his collar bone, with ulceration in his throat, that was rapidly increasing, so that dissolution appeared inevitable. In this condition he applied to Dr. Anders & Co. By the use of the Iodine Water the ulceration in his throat disappeared in a short time. Continuing its use, in less than two months he was apparently healed, and his general health much improved. This son, whom I had feared would fall asleep in death before this Summer should close, is now, apparently, in a fair way to recover as perfect health as is common to our mortal state. In gratitude to God, who has thus answered prayer, and in justice to Dr. Anders & Co., I have made this statement, satisfied that there is virtue in the Iodine Water treatment which the readers of this magazine will thank its editor for bringing to their notice.

Dr. H. Anders & Co.:

GENTS: The package of Iodine Water came all right. My disease is that of the mitral valve of the heart. Before using the Iodine Water a grating sound being very distinct, even so distinct that it could be heard without difficulty with my overcoat buttoned. Now that rubbing sound is not to be heard.

Yours truly,
GEORGE L. LESTER.

Dr. H. Anders & Co.:

GENTS: It affords me the highest pleasure to inform you that your Iodine Water has entirely cured my son Felix of Chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism. His limbs and his extremities were drawn up, and his heart was so affected as to jar his whole body by its excessive palpitations.

THE ALL-SUFFICIENT THREE,

KNOWN AS

HELMBOLD'S

GENUINE

PREPARATIONS.

HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
A Positive and Specific Remedy
For Diseases of the BLADDER,
KIDNEYS,
GRAVEL,
DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.
And all Diseases and Derangements of the
URINARY ORGANS,
Whether existing in
MALE OR FEMALE.
Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a
DIURETIC.
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,
And is certain to have the desired effect in all Diseases
FOR WHICH IT IS RECOMMENDED.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCAREOUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,
For Weaknesses
Arising from Excesses,
Habits of Dissipation,
Early Indiscretion or Abuse.
ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:
Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves, Trembling,
Horror of Disease, Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,
Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin, Eruptions on the Face,
PALLID COUNTENANCE.
HEAVINESS OF THE EYELIDS,
Frequently Black Spots flying before the EYES, with temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight,
Want of Attention, Mobility,
Restlessness,
With Horror of Society.
Nothing is more desirable
TO SUCH PATIENTS THAN SOLITUDE,
and nothing they more dread for
FEAR OF THEMSELVES.
NO REPOSE OF MANNER, NO EARNESTNESS,
NO SPECULATION,
but a hurried TRANSITION from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows
IMPOTENCY, FATUITY,
EPILEPTIC FITS,
IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.
Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those DIREFUL DISEASES,
INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION?
Many are aware of the cause of their suffering,
BUT NONE WILL CONFESS.
THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS
And the Melancholy Deaths by Consumption
BEAR AMPLE WITNESS TO THE TRUTH OF THE ASSERTION.
In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden, and quite destitute, neither
MIRTH OR GRIEF EVER VISIT IT.
Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate:
With woeful measures wan despair,
Low sullen sounds their grief beguile.
Parents and Guardians
Caution your children against this EVIL HABIT. It is the greatest curse that can befall
A YOUNG MAN OR WOMAN,
Unfitting them for Happiness and Married Life.
They may not experience the consequences now, but must and will sooner or later. The Constitution once affected with symptoms of
ORGANIC WEAKNESS,
Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and
Invigorate the System,
Which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does.
A TRIAL WILL CONVINCE THE MOST SKEPTICAL.

FEMALES—FEMALES—FEMALES,
OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.
IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO FEMALES, the Extract Buchu is unequaled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention,
Irregularity, Painfulness,
Or Suppression of Customary Evacuations,
Ulcerated or Scirrhous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.
SEE SYMPTOMS ABOVE.
NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT!

TAKE NO MORE BALSAM, MERCURY, OR UNPLEASANT MEDICINE FOR UNPLEASANT AND DANGEROUS DISEASES.
CURES
SECRET DISEASES
In all their Stages. At little Expense:
Little or no change in Diet: No inconvenience.
And no Exposure.
It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to urinate, thereby
Removing Obstructions,
Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra.
Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in the class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous, Diseased, and Worn-out Matter.
THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS WHO HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS OF QUACKS,
and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and
PERHAPS AFTER MARRIAGE.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all affections and diseases of the
URINARY ORGANS,
Whether existing in
MALE OR FEMALE,
From whatever cause originating, and no matter of
HOW LONG STANDING.
All the above diseases and symptoms admit of the same treatment, and may originate from the same cause.

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!
HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.
SYPHILIS.
This is an affection of the Blood, and
ATTACKS THE SEXUAL ORGANS,
LININGS OF THE NOSE, EARS,
THROAT, WINDPIPE,
AND OTHER MUCOUS SURFACES,
Making its appearance in the form of ULCERS.
And is generally attended with a discharge
MORE OR LESS OFFENSIVE,
AND, IF NEGLECTED,
DESTROYS WHATEVER PART
IT MAY ATTACK.

THIS DISEASE IS OFTEN TRANSMITTED TO CHILDREN: is contracted from the same cause, and often with GONORRHŒA, and both may exist at the same time. When such is the case HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA should be used in conjunction with the Buchu and HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH applied to the ULCERS.
Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla
Purifies the Blood
And removes all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.
GIVING TO THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR.
It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its Blood Purifying Properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

An excellent Lotion for Diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection in Diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from Habits of Dissipation, to be used in connection with the Extracts Buchu or Sarsaparilla, in such Diseases as recommended.

Evidence of the most reliable and responsible character will accompany the medicine.
